Daffodil Time at Gordon Head

It's daffodil time at Gordon Head! Early though it may be, the annual sight of acre upon acre of beautiful golden blooms all over the district is attracting hundreds of visitors these days. Pickers are busy in the fields and the flowers are being counted and packed for shipment to all parts of Canada as well as for local consumption.

In the top picture, Jo Ley, left, and Iris Lindquist carry in a large crate of freshly picked daffs. The picture was taken on the 40-acre farm of Jo's grandfather, W. T. Edwards, at Gordon Head. Mr. Edwards is shown in the lower picture with his big Clydesdale bringing in several crates of flowers to the packing house.

This week is peak week for the daffodil growers, and even though this year's crop is as large, if not larger, as past years, and the quality of the flowers is as good, if not better, than ever before, growers are feeling a little disappointed.

"The sad part of the whole thing," says Mr. Edwards, who is one of the larger growers at Gordon Head, "is that the peak came too soon before Easter."

Easter Sunday this year, falls on April 13. Last year it was March 26 and the daffodils were at their best at that time. Growers, as a result, got better prices for their blooms.

Last year Mr. Edwards' farm produced 120,000 dozen, 1,440,000 flowers.

"The number will be about the same this year, but we won't be able to get rid of them all," he said, "due to the time separating our peak week and Easter."

E. G. Paddon, a smaller daffodil grower than Mr. Edwards, but who has 1,000,000 tulips, which will soon be in bloom, said he had air mailed to Montreal two large crates of daffodils. The cost of mailing the flowers was more than twice as much as the value of the flowers.

Usual shipment of the daffs to the United States is by railway express. They are carefully placed in wood crates lined with tissue paper.

Air Force Most Popular, Navy Second in B.C.

The air force, as far as young British Columbians are concerned, is the most popular of the three armed services, with the navy second and the army in third place.

B.C. boys who went through the Gordon Head and Vernon compulsory military training camps expressed themselves in that fashion when asked if they would volunteer for active service.

British Columbia was the only district in Canada where the navy was second in popularity.

Defence Minister Ralston today gave a statement to the House of Commons in Ottawa declaring that of 81,000 young Canadians who went to the 30-day camps, 19,805 expressed a willingness to enlist for active service.

The air force throughout Canada was the most popular service, with the army second and the navy in third place. A total of 9,879 men volunteered for the R.C.A.F., 7,269 for the army and 2,667 for the navy.

In British Columbia 770 men offered their services to the air force, 261 to the navy and 153 for the army.

The largest number of volunteers of any military district came from Winnipeg, where 2,749 men offered their services—1,706 for the air force, 702 for the army and 341 for the navy.

Other figures follow: London, Ont., 365 navy, 777 army and 1,612 air force; Toronto, 370 navy, 502 army and 1,459 air force; Kingston, Ont., 165 navy, 561 army and 1,097 air force; Montreal, 212 navy, 517 army and 694 air force; Quebec, 54 navy, 214 army and 147 air force; Halifax, 448 navy, 695 army and 556 air force; Saint John, N.B., 185 navy, 1,071 army and 770 air force; Regina, 167 navy, 1,463 army and 754 air force; Calgary, 99 navy, 258 army and 485 air force.

$81,205,000

OTTAWA (CP)—Contracts placed in British Columbia by the Department of Munitions and Supply and its predecessors totaled $81,205,000 since July 14, 1939, Olat Hanson, Liberal, Skeena, was informed in return tabled in the Commons this afternoon.

Final Bulletins

Province to Pay 3-Cent Egg Subsidy

VANCOUVER (CP)—Provided it is turned over to the producer, the provincial government is ready to pay exporters of eggs a subsidy of three cents a dozen, Hon. K. C. MacDonald, British Columbia Minister of Agriculture, announced at a meeting of Pacific Coast Poultry Producers' Association today.

Dr. MacDonald declared he did not like the principle of subsidizing any industry.

"It is not economically sound," he said, "but as war conditions have prevented a natural flow of trade, particularly export trade, it seems necessary to help the producer."

Jugoslav Pact

BELGRADE (AP)—The Yugoslav crown council late tonight approved a plan for breaking the impasse between Germany and Yugoslavia, described by a responsible government leader as an offer of economic and semi-military aid to the Reich.

Ship Captured

VICHY (AP)—The 8,917-ton French merchant vessel Sontay has been captured by Great Britain and taken to Dushan, Union of South Africa, from where passengers cabled they have been well treated pending repatriation, the Vichy government said tonight.

Bomber Bagged

LONDON (CP)—A German dive bomber which attacked two naval auxiliary vessels today was shot down by a naval gunner who kept his Lewis gun trained on the plane until it was only 50 feet away, it was stated tonight.

64,000 in A.R.P.

OTTAWA (CP)—More than 64,000 volunteer air raid precautions workers are training in Nova Scotia, New Brunswick, Quebec, Ontario and British Columbia, Hon. Ian Mackenzie, pensions minister, told a questioner in the Commons this afternoon.

Big Plane Crashes

CORDOBA, Argentina (AP)—Six military airmen were killed today in the crash of a United States-built Martin bomber on a practice flight between Buenos Aires and Villa Mercedes, San Luis province.

Spring Arrives

Unofficially spring came to Victoria many weeks ago.

Today, however, it made its formal debut, at exactly 1 p.m., when the spring solstice occurred.

This year it is a day ahead of time, because 1940 was leap year. The days and nights are now of equal length. Gradually, until June 21 the days will lengthen and the nights shorten.

The War Today

By GUY RHODES

END FOR DUCE?

The end of Italy as a combatant in the second Great War appears to be drawing rapidly closer as British forces in Africa and Greek troops in Albania administer defeat after defeat to the Fascists.

British forces in Ethiopia which captured Jijiga Monday were reported today to be fighting northeast of that town, a possible indication they would head straight for the Addis Ababa-Jibuti railway, cut it and paralyze the rest of Italy's forces in the country by depriving them of supplies.

MAY HALT

Just as the British High Command halted the north African offensive after advancing into the Bengazi district and capturing that city, thereby isolating Tripolitania, so it appears it might well afford to halt after cutting the Ethiopian railway, a single track line and the only one over which supplies can be hauled from French Somaliland, sole ocean and rail inlet for the inhospitable country.

In Albania Mussolini's demands for a victory, apparently any kind of a victory, had one apparent effect, an increase in the number of Italian casualties as officers forced tired troops to throw themselves en masse and hopelessly against strongly held Greek positions which were not endangered by a week's Italian offensive spurred personally by the Duce.

In that offensive the Italians were reported to have lost between 40,000 and 50,000 men killed, wounded or prisoners, without gaining a single objective.

Usual shipment of the daffs to the United States is by railway express. They are carefully placed in wood crates lined with tissue paper.

Where Crash Hurt 300 Defence Workers

A huge derrick picks up one of the smashed cars of a nine-car train wrecked when a speeding freight ploughed into it near Ravenna, Ohio. The workers were bound for the U.S. government's $19,090,000 Ravenna arsenal. Note the overturned engine in the background.

Italians Flee Albania, Say Army Breaking Up

BELGRADE (AP)—Italian soldiers and some of their Albanian comrades-in-arms crossed the frontier into Yugoslavia at separate points for internment late today, both groups reporting "rapid disintegration" of Italian forces in the war with Greece.

The flight of the soldiers into internment, rather than continue the fight, coincided with the second report of the day that Greek troops had entered Tepeleni in the wake of the terrific R.A.F. bomb attack.

Headlong Flight To Adriatic Coast

The Italians, in tattered uniforms, were said to have crossed the border near Podgorica. Their story was much the same as that of the Albanians—"complete collapse of morale... headlong flight toward the Adriatic coast."

The second report of the day (still unconfirmed from Athens or Rome) that Greek forces had entered the central front town of Tepeleni was received from Yugoslav frontier in the early evening. This report quoted "travelers" from the Greek town of Philorina.

British Troops Land at Salonika

Reports great numbers of British troops had landed at Salonika, Greek Aegean seaport, evoked from German diplomatic quarters the declaration tonight that Hitler's armies in Bulgaria may "move at any moment" against Greece.

Turkey was said to have massed 100,000 men on her frontier facing the German army of occupa-

British Pound Duce's Ships

ALEXANDRIA (AP)—An Italian warship identified either as a cruiser or a large destroyer was among ships sunk by torpedo planes in a series of damaging attacks at Valona and Durazzo, Albania, a British naval communiqué said tonight.

The statement said: "Aircraft of the fleet air arm carried out a series of extremely successful attacks during the nights of March 15 to 17 against enemy shipping at Valona and Durazzo, causing severe damage. 'Hits were scored with torpedoes.'"

British Submarines Score 5 Times

LONDON (CP)—Three British submarines attacking Italian convoys sank two heavily-laden supply vessels, "almost certainly" destroyed another, and scored hits on two crowded troop-transports, one of which "it is con-

ON GUARD AT DARDANELLES—In addition to strong forces massed along the Bulgarian border, facing a German army, Turkey has troops in position along the strait between the Aegean and the Sea of Marmara. This picture shows troops on the move and, in the background, a warship steaming through the Dardanelles. After a conference on the Island of Cyprus yesterday Anthony Eden, British Foreign Secretary, and Sukru Saracoglu, Turkish Foreign Minister, announced there was "complete identity of views" between their governments.

tion in Bulgaria as a precaution against any Nazi move.

More than 1,000,000 men were reported reliably to be under arms in Yugoslavia, which has been dickered over German demands that she join the Rome-Berlin Axis.

The British forces were said to have begun arriving yesterday at Salonika, backdoor to the Balkans and likely first objective of any German thrust from Bulgaria.

This was understood to be the first appearance of British forces at Salonika, although landing of a force expected to total 300,000 men has been under way for several days at five ports in southern Greece.

Accounts of the landing of the troops at the Aegean port, along with vast supplies of gasoline, came from the Greek frontier town of Gevgellia, Yugoslavia, as Berlin dispatches reaching Belgrade claimed "the Greek question already has been settled."

These dispatches failed to say what the settlement consisted of, but they asserted "only a short time must elapse before this conflagration which threatened to engulf other Balkan states will be extinguished."

The Gevgellia account said the Salonika population accorded a "wild celebration" to the British troops.

Confirmation of this dispatch was lacking at the British and Greek legations here. British officials said a recent order was issued forbidding the movement of British troops north of a line running through Larissa, Greek railroad town far south of Salonika.

It was added, however, that neither legation has as yet confirmed the landing of any British troops in Greece, although this is common talk among diplomats here and in other Balkan capitals, some of whom themselves brought eyewitness accounts from Greece.

Germans still insisted Yugoslavia would join the Rome-Berlin-Tokyo alliance March 26.

One report was passage of hospital trains and war materials would be permitted by Yugoslavia as a maximum concession, but whether Germany would settle so cheaply was not known.

Italian Warship Sunk, 5 Craft Hit

considered certain was completely destroyed," the Admiralty announced today.

The sinking of the two supply ships, of about 2,500 tons each, was credited to the 1,090-ton Triumph. The third supply ship, of 3,000 tons, was hit by the Unique.

The attack on the convoyed transports was carried out by the submarine Utmost and its torpedo hits were followed by "a very violent explosion."

H.M.S. Utmost was in command of Lt.-Cmdr. R. D. Caley, R.N., H.M.S. Unique under Lieut. A. F. Ollett, R.N., and H.M.S. Triumph in command of Lt.-Cmdr. W. J. W. Woods, R.N.

"Jane's Fighting Ships," world authority on war vessels, does not list an Utmost or Unique in its latest edition, indicating these are new additions to Britain's submarine fleet.)

The Triumph is a sister ship of the submarine Thetis, which sank in June, 1939, in the Irish Sea with the loss of 98 men and which was raised and recommissioned as the Thunderbolt and is now in service.

Military Feats In Africa Unparalleled

British Armies Set Speed Record

LONDON (CP)—The Ministry of Information said today the British Army of the Nile had established a "world record for speed in action" and had killed or captured the "whole army of 150,000 men" which the Italian commander, Marshal Rodolfo Graziani, had assembled in north Africa for an invasion of Egypt.

"It is believed that two tanks and four armored cars escaped" from Graziani's force, the ministry said.

It added the British army had suffered fewer than 2,000 casualties.

The ministry used the Libyan campaign and the long marches in Somaliland and southern Ethiopia to point up the declaration the German army never had been called on to meet "such an opponent as the British army of today."

Chinese gunning Italian hill positions, British land forces are driving forward in their siege of Cheren, Eritrean key city, "in spite of heavy enemy counter-attacks," it was announced officially today.

Enemy Suffers Heavy Losses

"During yesterday's fighting the Italian casualties were particularly heavy," the war bulletin said.

The high command said that in southern Ethiopia "our forward movement is continuing satisfactorily."

B.C. Not Going to Pay

Pattullo Writes Again to King

Premier Pattullo disclosed today he has written another letter to Prime Minister King in connection with the federal government's demand to British Columbia to pay off some of its relief loans.

While the Premier said he would not disclose the nature of his letter, for the present, it became increasingly clear in government circles that the province is repeating its request to Ottawa to renew the notes and explaining why it cannot pay them.

The next notes, for $2,800,000 odd, fall due next Tuesday, followed by others on April 30.

While the government continues to refrain from public comment on the issue while the correspondence is going on, explanations why the province cannot pay were offered in "off-the-record" conversations.

These can be summed up

briefly as follows: Because most of the money was borrowed for unemployment relief, which always should have been a federal responsibility, as all formal investigations have agreed, the province does not feel that it should be called on to repay the bulk of the loans; second, even if it wanted to pay, the treasury is in no position to do so this year because it is going to have a hard enough job to make up the sinking fund shortages for $25,000,000 of maturing private loans.

It is understood these points will be the gist of the province's further representations to Ottawa.

The treasury appears confident federal authorities will see the argument and reach an early decision. A ruling must be made before next Tuesday on whether Ottawa will renew the notes or put the province in the position of a defaulter.

These can be summed up

Germans Claim 'Clarification'

BERLIN (AP)—Nazi spokesman declared today the German-Turkish situation has been "clarified" by a reply Hitler has received to his message to President Ismet Inonu of Turkey.

It was not stated whether the answer was positive or negative, but a spokesman said of the exchange of messages: "Undoubtedly it was a clarification on both sides."

Asked how far such clarification went, he replied:

"Clarifications are always useful."

(Indications from Turkey have been the reply was negative.)

U-boats At Lorient Bombed

Cologne Factories Blasted by R.A.F.

LONDON (CP)—The German submarine base at Lorient, France, was attacked by British aircraft last night, the Air Ministry announced today.

Many heavy bombs were seen to burst among the docks at Lorient and one large fire was started, the Air Ministry said.

The Lorient attack was carried out by aircraft of the coastal command while other aircraft raided Cologne, in the Rhineland, hitting several factories.

Communications and the industrial quarter on the east bank of the Rhine were the main targets, the communiqué said, and one large building was seen "to disintegrate under the impact of heavy bombs."

Two other factories were left burning furiously. Other fires were started alongside a railroad.

Cologne ranks as a highly important part of Germany's war set-up, with munitions factories, oil plants and blast furnaces. The Rhine River, together with canals and railways, makes the city a vital transportation centre.

Last night's attack was the 62nd the R.A.F. has made on Cologne. No aircraft were lost in the night's activities, which also included attacks on oil storage tanks and three airdromes in the Low Countries.

The London Daily Mail, in a front-page story, said today that "long-range fighter aircraft, so advanced in design they will revolutionize air warfare, are being built for Britain in the United States."

The newspaper's air correspondent said it was understood the fighters will be more heavily armed than any now in existence, with a range far exceeding that of the Messerschmitt 110, and their "startling" speed will provide "a complete answer to Germany's ocean-raiding long-range Condor bombers."

Seaway Project Takes Spotlight

OTTAWA (CP)—Accompanied by a new declaration that the United States is determined to see the Allied cause through to victory, the second attempt of the Canadian and United States governments to develop power and navigation in the St. Lawrence basin is formally launched.

Prime Minister Mackenzie King announced to the Commons yesterday afternoon the signing of an agreement for a seaway and power development which President Roosevelt termed essential to the defence measures under way in both countries.

Text of the agreement for regulation of all international waterway matters from the head of the Great Lakes to Montreal is to be laid before Congress in Washington and the House of Commons here tomorrow.

The announcement overshadowed debate on the war appropriation bill, which went on again today.

WORK IN AUGUST?

Engineers who have been in close touch with the proposals for the International Rapids estimate that if Congress and Parliament endorse the agreement by early May it should be possible to award contracts and begin construction work around August 1.

Completion of the project will mean thousands of people living along the Canadian side of the St. Lawrence for the 35 miles stretching from Cornwall to Iroquois, must move and resettle elsewhere. At least 20,000 acres of their land will be flooded.

Iroquois, according to engineers' plans, will be completely wiped out by the flooding.

OPPOSITION VOICED

NEW YORK (CP)—The New York Times, long opposed to development of the St. Lawrence waterway as a seaway and power project, urged editorially today that the agreement signed yesterday in Ottawa providing for a

'Rock' Tunnelers Have Souvenirs

1st Gibraltar Canadians Return to British Isles

By ROSS MUNRO

SOMEWHERE IN ENGLAND (CP)—A detachment of diamond drillers of the Royal Canadian Engineers tunneling company returned to the Canadian Corps today after three months' work on Gibraltar fortifications.

All carried souvenir chunks of "The Rock" and many of them were sun-tanned to a deep brown.

Commanded by Lieut. H. G. Demcrest, Noranda, Que., during the voyage north, the detachment was welcomed back to England by the chief engineer of the corps and by Maj. Colin Campbell of Sault Ste. Marie, Ont., commander of units which first went to Gibraltar.

The drillers left Gibraltar shortly after arrival of a second contingent of Canadian sappers under Maj. C. B. North of Vancouver, now hard at work on the Rock with the remainder of the first Canadians who went south last December.

The Canadian operations in co-operation with British engineers are moving steadily and are up to schedule, they said.

JAPAN GROWS MORE TOTALITARIAN

By MAX HILL

TOKYO (AP)—The Japanese government greatly strengthened its control over the nation's wartime organization today as three recently-revised laws, establishing heavy penalties for economic crimes, became effective.

The recent session of the Diet, seeking to throttle the growing number of violations of economic laws and restrictions, added teeth to the national general mobilization law, the common and temporary exports and imports disposal law and the criminal law.

Hundreds of thousands of economic violations are reported annually and the revised legislation, besides being aimed specifically at these, extends the government's supervision of business, industry, transportation, agriculture and foreign and domestic trade.

Parallel steps toward consolidation of a "high-powered defence state" are said to be imminent.

DICTATORS

The groundwork is being completed for inauguration, possibly in April, of a series of control organizations, under which plants producing key wartime products would be grouped under virtual economic dictators appointed by business men but responsible to the government.

The three revised laws, specifying maximum punishments of 50,000-yen fines ($11,700), 10 years' imprisonment, or both, for economic crimes, provide the groundwork for the proposed new industrial system, under which industries would be formed into groups, each with its own appointee as supervising chairman.

This man would assign production quotas, dovetail the country's requirements, in his own industry group, control the partitioning of raw materials and be responsible to a supreme economic conference, which in turn would form liaison between all industries and be responsible to the government.

Italians Claim Line Holds

ROME (AP)—The Italian high command today claimed Italian troops are holding off British attacks on Mardia Pass, northeast of Jijiga, Ethiopia.

(The British command announced yesterday the capture of Jijiga. Fighting northeast of Jijiga possibly would indicate the British forces are heading straight for the Addis Ababa-Jibuti railway instead of for Harar and Dire Dawa, which lie west and northwest, respectively, of Jijiga.)

Fighting also was said to be taking place in the Cherer sector of Eritrea with the Italians claiming to have counter-attacked "despite previous losses and intense enemy air action."

100,000 to Cross Indo-China?

Reported Jap Expedition To Move on Singapore

SAIGON, French Indo-China (AP)—Widespread reports which the Associated Press has been unable to trace to their source, said today the Japanese were planning within the next two weeks to send 100,000 troops from Hainan Island, across central French Indo-China into Thailand.

After traversing Indo-China, the reports said, the Japanese either would proceed to Bangkok, go toward the northern border of Malaya, or turn northeast toward Burma in an attempt to isolate Chungking, capital of the central Chinese government, and prevent the movement of military supplies over the Burma Road.

(Japan could not attack from Thailand without crossing Burma. Thailand has no Chinese frontier.)

Some observers suggested this might be Thailand's way of paying off Japan for territorial gains from Japanese "mediation" of the border warfare between Thailand and Indo-China.

It was also remarked that the reported undertaking might be a Japanese retaliatory move against British forces now on Thailand's southern border, in Malaya, guarding the land approach to Singapore.

It is believed here it would be impossible for the Japanese to capture Singapore through naval action and, therefore, an overland attack would be more logical.

It is also believed the Japanese have facilities and forces on Hainan Island, and also on Tonkin, northern Indo-China, sufficient to undertake such a project.

The reports indicated the Japanese would sail in transports 175 miles southwest to the fairly modern port of Tourane, and then proceed by railway and trucks.

Such a Japanese move was said to be part of an understanding reached at the Tokyo mediation conference.

Woman Librarian For Prison Camps

LONDON (CP)—Amid the crash of Nazi bombing or high above the noise of London traffic Miss Christine Knowles in Carlingford House, Hartford Street, directs the lively revival of a voluntary organization which flourished during the first Great War—"The British Prisoners of War Books and Games Fund."

As the name indicates the objective is to keep the 44,000 British prisoners in Germany supplied with books and games, music and musical instruments. These mean much in morale, comfort and heartening of prisoners.

The books include novels, language texts, books of travel, history, memoirs, biography, philosophy, poetry and plays. A nucleus of 1,000 books is placed in each camp to build up libraries.

As soon as the servicemen's family has been notified he is a prisoner of war his address is obtained by the book fund. Immediately a small parcel containing a Bible, novel, a pocket chess board and counters and a pack of cards is sent. Enclosed also a card upon which he may indicate his personal tastes and hobbies.

These cards are returned and their requests filled. Some ask to learn Spanish, German, French and other languages. Some ask for Bibles in Welsh and Gaelic.

Through this organization anyone can adopt a prisoner and for $1 a month, parcels of books will be sent to him.

Clubwomen to Hear Story of Wedgwood

As a change from topical themes, the Women's Canadian Club next Tuesday afternoon will be regaled with an address on "The Romance of Josiah Wedgwood, the Great English Pottery-maker." The speaker will be Mrs. Oliver Leslie of Vancouver, whose lecture has proved so popular that she has raised over $800 for various war funds through its medium.

She gives a history of pottery-making through the centuries, deals with the incomparable love story of Josiah and Sarah Wedgwood and closes with the triumph of his Jasper ware.

Toronto Bank Building Gunned By Fire

TORONTO (CP)—The Imperial Bank building at Wellington Street and Leader Lane, in downtown Toronto, formerly the bank's head office, suffered damage estimated at $110,000 to $225,000 from a fire early today in which eight firemen had a narrow escape from being crushed beneath a falling wall.

The eight had been ordered to move by Chief George Sinclair just a few minutes before one of three explosions during the fire blew out a section of the wall. One of the explosions was believed to have been caused by film stored in an office in the building.

There are 10 kinds of armadillos, but only one kind really rolls up in its shell for defence.

Homeless Trek In British Capital

Thousands of Bombs Thrown on London

LONDON (CP)—Shops were demolished, homes badly damaged and casualties caused by a team of Nazi raiders on the south-east coast today as a trek of homeless began from an area of London scarred in the capital's most violent night pounding this year.

Two German bombers dived from the clouds in a hit-and-run attack on a southeast coast town just after four Messerschmidts had plummeted out of a hazy sky and raked a number of small fishing boats with their machine guns.

From the London area worst hit in last night's six-hour raid flowed a stream of perambulators and small carts loaded with salvaged belongings of the homeless.

The refugees were comforted and aided by begrimed firemen who had spent the night battling fires in the workers' district.

Blocks Blown Apart, 5 Hospitals Struck

Whole blocks of residences were blown to bits, five hospitals were hit, a large hotel was partly destroyed and public services were thrown out of gear.

Many fires, big and small, were started by thousands of incendiary bombs, and the blazes were used as targets for demolition bombs dropped later.

One large department store was burned out and bombs injured several firemen who were trying to extinguish the blaze.

Seven persons were killed in one building.

A large number of bodies was recovered from the debris of a public shelter hit by a bomb.

A block of residences was wrecked by two high explosive bombs in another area.

In other outstanding examples of destruction, heavy bombs split buildings in two and a police station was blasted apart, several policemen on duty being killed.

People Trapped In Raid Debris

In many sections persons still were trapped in debris at mid-morning.

The government said reports did not "suggest very heavy casualties."

There was little activity elsewhere over Britain during the night, though some bombs fell on both sides of the Thames Estuary and on the south coast. Damage and casualties in those areas were described officially as small.

Though the Germans scattered thousands of incendiary bombs over London and started many fires, no big blazes were seen when the all clear finally was sounded.

Bus Passengers Douse 50 Bombs

At one point a bus driver formed his passengers into a volunteer fire brigade and they quickly extinguished 50 fire bombs which sizzled into the street near the vehicle.

An intense barrage, which some observers said was the heaviest of the air war, greeted the Nazi raiders, but only one was reported shot down.

Searchlights were used more extensively than in recent months in an attempt to spot the raiders, and at times the anti-aircraft gunners held their fire, indicating British night fighters were aloft.

The maternity ward of one hospital, in use as a temporary first aid station, was wrecked and the nurses' sleeping quarters damaged, but none of the patients was injured.

Five nurses were buried when debris from floors above crashed into their room, but they were rescued with only minor injuries.

Fire spotters on the roof of another hospital had a narrow escape when a high explosive bomb ploughed through the roof, wrecking one wing of the building.

The change in technique was ascribed to the lesson of the great fire raid of December 29 last. The Germans then sent over fleets of fire bombers and set parts of the city of London ablaze—but bad weather closed in be-

Hull Digging Out After Fierce Raid

Hull, English east coast factory and shipping city of 300,000 population, was still cleaning up the wreckage today of one of the heaviest German night attacks on British provincial centres on Tuesday night and Wednesday morning.

Six communal centres were opened to shelter and feed the homeless.

Moans from the wreckage of a tenement in a Clydeside town, 132 hours after a bomb had shattered the building, sent a physician hurrying to the aid of a trapped woman yesterday. He administered hypodermic injections and the woman was rescued alive, nodding her thanks, but she died six hours later in a hospital.

Germans Claim 10,000 Bombs Dropped

BERLIN (AP)—Nazi spokesmen asserted today German bombers battered London for six hours last night in an "unprecedented attack far exceeding Coventry."

The Nazis have used the heavier-than-Coventry phrase several times in the past fortnight in describing attacks on provincial cities. There has been no indication that damage in any case exceeded that at Coventry.

The Nazis asserted hundreds of planes participated in the assault, dropping some 10,000 fire and high-explosive bombs on the British capital.

Presenting the Note

BRITISH COLUMBIA'S GOVERNMENT is very much in the position of the man who borrows money from a friend, hoping he will not have to pay it back, or, at least, not until he is comfortably "in funds." Sometimes it works out that way; on the other hand, the friend may be called upon to meet an unexpected emergency; he may suddenly need every cent he can scrape together. He thinks of Smith and the helping hand he gave him—the same Smith who is sporting a new car and building a new home, suggesting, at least, comparative affluence. But the gentle reminder is a jolt to Smith; he is annoyed.

This homely simile finds full emphasis in the request Hon. J. L. Isley, Dominion Minister of Finance, has made to the government of this province to pay back at least some of the $34,750,000 it owes to the national treasury. Mr. Pattullo instantly demurred; he informs the government at Ottawa that British Columbia's ministry always has considered the cost of unemployment relief a federal liability; consequently he is disinclined to recognize the validity of Ottawa's claim to such sums so disbursed—amounting to some $24,000,000. However, Mr. Isley hopes Mr. Pattullo "will not overlook the fact" that a little more than $10,000,000 of this province's debt to the federal authorities has nothing whatever to do with unemployment relief costs. The provincial Premier still is not mollified; he tells Mr. Mackenzie King he does not think British Columbia should be expected to begin to pay off treasury bills at this time; he calls the demand "inordinate" and feels it is a case of "putting the screws" on the provincial government.

Well and good; but the correspondence between the two capitals—published in the Times yesterday—shows that neither Mr. King nor Mr. Isley has overlooked, for example, considerable evidence of British Columbia's capacity to make some restitution. The Ottawa Finance Minister naturally points to the contents of Mr. Hart's last budget, its record revenues, its surplus of more than $6,000,000, and the fact the provincial government turned a deaf ear to every suggestion that it follow the example of other governments and help to meet the emergency by curtailing expenditures. As to British Columbia's willingness to meet the exigencies of the war, no matter what form they might take, the correspondence quotes the following statement made by the provincial Minister of Finance in Victoria last November 28:

"If the Dominion government when we go to Ottawa in January says it is necessary for us to do certain things to help in winning this war, then we are prepared to make every sacrifice—there is only one issue at this time and that is the winning of the war, and this province will stand behind Canada and the Empire in this regard—no matter what sacrifices are required, the province of British Columbia will make them."

Having considered the foregoing, giving it its full face value, Mr. Mackenzie King observes in one of his letters:

"My colleagues and I have assumed that this attitude, expressed on the part of the British Columbia government, was made on behalf of the provincial government. We had, therefore, anticipated the eminently reasonable request contained in Mr. Isley's letter would meet with a ready response."

There is the rub. Mr. Pattullo's idea of an "eminently reasonable request" differs from that of the Dominion government. And Mr. Isley is in the same fix as Smith's friend—with this difference, however: The federal Minister of Finance is trying to cope with an emergency created by a third party named Adolf Hitler, the arch-enemy at making "inordinate demands" and "putting the screws" on governments and peoples. He understands one language—the force which money buys quickest. He is not concerned with the internal squabbles of his enemies; but his presence in the international scene is a cogent reason why the British Columbia government, without any delay, should re-examine and cut its 1941-1942 budget—sufficiently, at any rate, to enable it to meet in some degree Mr. Isley's "eminently reasonable request."

Finally, when Mr. Hart said "no matter what sacrifices are required, the province of British Columbia will make them," he properly admitted the importance of national unity behind the war effort. Therefore, if the opportunity which now presents itself to repair some of the damage done at the abortive Ottawa conference is not taken, if the danger of a new breach while the enemy is battering at the gates is not quickly removed, supporters of the Liberal Party in British Columbia should lose no time in taking stock of their position.

This Hemisphere's Gold

MAGAZINE ARTICLES, SPEECHES BY world-renowned economists and public men in the neighboring republic have taken the huge pile of gold buried at Fort Knox, Kentucky, as their text for exhaustive and mystifying discourses. As the war drags on, perhaps, men who have been gold-minded for 2,000 years may get an inkling of what is to be done with all this precious metal. Uncle Sam's hoard—most of it forced on him as the result of fanciful but morally unsound and, in the long run, financially blind fiscal policies—is not alone in its yellow glory; the second largest pile in the world also is in the Western Hemisphere. It lies buried under a mountain in Martinique, where Napoleon's Josephine was born.

The Caribbean has seen dramas before on the theme of gold, when British naval raiders and free-lance pirates preyed on the golden stream that passed through the Panama bottleneck on the way from America to Spain. The French, it now appears, got $1,000,000,000 worth of gold aboard a cruiser in 1940 just ahead of the invading Germans, and, after some thrilling adventures, landed it at Fort Saint Louis de Saix and Fort de France at Martinique, where it now awaits some kind of "new order." So, while we know our neighbor has most of the world's gold, we can also be satisfied that the Western Hemisphere has practically all of it.

Strange Views

DURING ONE OF HIS RECENT BROAD- casts from London, Mr. J. B. Priestley, internationally-renowned author and publicist, reminded the British public and his trans-Atlantic listeners that a small element in Britain still clings to the idea that when this war is over we shall be able to settle down again to conditions as they were before September 3, 1939. Mr. Priestley will never be guilty of soft-pedalling his warnings to all who think this way; he has told them in the plainest language that the spirit of national unity which the common enemy has helped to produce will be employed to establish a real "new order" of which all decent men and women will be proud.

But we get an insight into the mental processes of some people who are still living in another day from observations in that staid old Conservative monthly, The Nineteenth Century, on the gradual crumbling of Mussolini's Italian empire. In December, it said in part: "Italy should not be so weakened and despoiled that she would cease to be an influence in the councils of Europe. On no account should she be robbed of her status as a leading colonial power." Indeed, The Nineteenth Century would organize an African resettlement under "England, France, Italy and perhaps Spain," which would "promote the security and wellbeing of all Northern Africa, provide Europe with a flourishing market, and held to stabilize the whole Mediterranean situation." But the Conservative monthly in its January issue spread its net even wider. It argued: "Abyssinia, Eritrea, and British Somaliland might conceivably be administered jointly by Great Britain, Italy and Egypt, 'Abyssinia proper' receiving a full measure of home rule, perhaps under Haile Selassie."

There you have a reputable London monthly—read by the so-called "better people"—recommending at the beginning of 1941 that Italy be given a say in what happens to Abyssinia! And Haile Selassie's prospect of restoration is in the "perhaps" class. But the Lion of Judah happens to be in his homeland leading his troops in a war of liberation—aided by British Empire forces. Moreover, his proclamation when he reached home ended with "Long Live Great Britain." Nor does he have to worry about the antediluvian ideas which still linger in some quarters. The plain people of Britain have done with the old order; The Nineteenth Century may live in the past if it so desires. The liberators are living in the 20th. The goodbye Italy is being compelled to wave to her African empire is goodbye for a long time.

Notes

We are inspired by meeting the famous. Seeing how ordinary they are gives us new confidence in ourselves.

Germany gives medals to mechanics, and that seems fair, but what about a few decorations for taxpayers?

Psychiatrists say Hitler has always been nervous. We've often wondered what pulled off the ends of his moustache.

Happy thought! If manufacturers, in case of emergency, can use reclaimed rubber, there may yet be a market for used gum.

MR. MEIGHEN'S ADDRESS

From Winnipeg Free Press

Arthur Meighen, of all men, is showing an inclination to agree with those people who suggest that it is hardly worth fighting to win the war if they cannot be assured that the political and economic results will be satisfactory to them; though it is perhaps unnecessary to add that Mr. Meighen's views as to what would be a satisfactory outcome of the war are far removed from those usually avowed by proclaimers of this doctrine. He is reported to have said in a recent speech in Toronto: "If property, profit, the reward of toil, the fundamental instinct of the human race to gain, to acquire, to have, to reach somewhere, is taken away, then I for one do not feel that we have anything worth fighting for."

This contention is just as fallacious, coming from so distinguished a member of the Right as Mr. Meighen, as it is from the soap-box orator who wants to be assured that the war will bring in his particular Utopia without delay.

NEW YORK

DEATH EXAGGERATED

THE OTHER DAY, on my way across the border, I picked up a copy of Collier's and found in it an article by my good friend, Walter Davenport called "Taps for the New Deal." Thinking to steal some of Mr. Davenport's ideas, I read it with care. But instead of the end of the New Deal, as foreseen by Mr. Davenport, I found in America just the opposite. I found the New Deal surging up to new heights, spreading out, proliferating and conquering not only the United States, the country of its origin, but Canada as well. Mr. Davenport mourned too soon.

Actually what you see in America today is simply the expanded and perfected blueprint of the New Deal as originally conceived in Washington. And it looks as if the blue print had become something more, an actual machine, in full operation, which is likely to be with us for some time, perhaps forever.

The New Deal, you may remember, proposed to spend a lot of money by government deficits and thus create purchasing power for the people. And the theory was that after a while there would be so many people at work they would all be able to pay taxes and balance the budget and we would live happily ever afterwards.

Well, they have revealed the name of the New Deal; they have advertised its demise in Collier's and other publications. But the thing itself goes on. Today in America government is spending more by way of deficit, and by way of taxes, than anyone in the world ever dreamed of before. Beside the New Deal of the thirties, the New Deal of the forties is a gigantic thing and makes all the timid expenditures of the depression era look like the collection plate in a Sunday school.

NOT FOR US

WE IN CANADA never liked the New Deal. Our government attacked it. We regarded it as a Yankee mechanism which was sure to break down after a while, and we resolved to tough out the depression. And we rejoiced to see the depression come to an end by "normal" means, not by any fancy economic stunt like the New Deal.

It seems to have escaped everyone's notice that the depression came to an end precisely because the principle of the New Deal was adopted everywhere. The depression ended when governments started to spend at an undreamed-of rate for the purpose of arming themselves.

But note this: We in Canada have gone much further into the New Deal than the Americans, who invented it. We not only are spending on a gigantic scale and putting everybody to work; we are establishing throughout our economic system those controls over wages, prices, foreign trade and just about everything else which the original New Dealers wanted in the United States, but never quite secured. We have in Canada today, indeed, the very perfection of the New Deal. And all America is living and fattening on government spending. We are all working for the government, whether we are on the payroll or not. If you doubt it, note your next income tax bill.

UPSIDE DOWN

BUT IF THE New Deal has lived on and grown, it has been turned upside down; for instead of producing goods and wealth that we can use, it is devoted largely to the production of war materials that we cannot use. That is the big difference between the New Deal as projected and as finally implemented. As implemented it does put people to work. It does raise the national income in terms of total production. But the average amount of goods available to the average family is smaller, and must become smaller yet as more and more of our energy, manpower and machinery goes into unusable war materials.

This, however, is only a short-sighted view. A longer view makes it clear to anyone that the New Deal does not end here. Having learned during the war how to mobilize men and machines and keep people at work, surely we are not going to sit down on the curb when the war is over and admit that we cannot do anything to save ourselves from a new depression. The lessons of management we learn now we shall continue into the peace, if we have any sense.

But these are extremely dangerous weapons which, if missed, can damage and even ruin us. And the overshadowing issue before Canada after the war has been won is how far, and for what purpose we shall use the New Deal which has descended upon us, invisibly, when nobody was looking.

LIKE COALS TO NEWCASTLE

Even the rush of war work is not enough to keep the Englishman from his tea, judging by an advertisement in an issue of the aviation weekly, Flight, recently received here. Among the advertisements for metal work, aluminum castings and other material and equipment used in airplane construction is one for a boiler to be used in the shop from which can be obtained water for tea. "You'll never get a better cup of tea than you will if it's made on the spot from freshly boiling water," the announcement promises. "Taking the men to tea, or the tea to the men, are equally wrong. Making it where they work is the only sensible way—and for this you need a So-and-so Boiler."

WEALTH BY LABOR

Labor is the great producer of wealth. It moves all other causes.—Webster.

TRUE GREATNESS

Great things must be done greatly: with a great purpose, a great mind, a great courage, a great energy, and a great persistent patience.—Elizabeth Barrett Browning.

Elmore Philpott

SAWDUST CAESAR

MUSSOLINI WENT TO Albania last week to take charge of the large-scale attacks which were supposed to redeem some of the lost prestige of the Fascists. The net result was that the Greeks inflicted on the Italians the most disastrous losses yet suffered in a campaign which has been one long record of reverses for the invaders.

Future historians will devote whole volumes to marveling as to how it was the democratic world allowed this puffing, boasting bully to magnify himself into a world bogy. Even when Britain has been fighting for her very life against the greatest military power of all time she and her gallant Grecian ally have been able to inflict on Italy defeats as decisive and astonishing as any in modern history.

The entire British, Australian and Indian army engaged in the smashing attacks on the Italians in Libya lost less than 500 men killed. There were twice that number of civilians killed last week in the ports on the west coast of Britain in the German air attacks. And in the North African campaign the British armies took prisoners as numerous as the entire Canadian corps in the last war.

The London newspapers might be forgiven for putting into the mouth of Hitler an imaginary paraphrase of Churchill's famous tribute to the R.A.F.: "Never did so many do so little in so long a time."

Yet history shows that the Italians are by no means cowards. The whole crux of the situation appears to be that the Italians just did not want to fight. For 18 years they had been subjected to all the alleged "benefits" of Fascist discipline. They stole Ethiopia under the very noses of the civilized world by means of a gigantic bluff which could have been called with ridiculous ease—indeed, precisely as easily as the plug is pulled in any bathtub. Yet not until this master bluffer—this sawdust Caesar—had successfully plunged his dagger into the back of his neighbor France did we really decide to stand against him.

IRONY OF FATE

One of the ironies of fate is that leaders who year after year try to warn their people about dangers to come—but without success—find themselves pitchedforked into the very mire of the thing they tried to warn them about. It has actually arrived. The people refuse to listen when the danger could still be forestalled, or nipped in the bud. Then, when it is too late to prevent catastrophe the Churchills and Edens are called back to office and forced to fight under all-but-insuperable handicaps.

For years Churchill raised his voice in vain. His only thanks was to be scorned and derided by those who now almost fawn upon him. It is not two years since Beverley Baxter poured whole pages of ridicule, not unminged with vitriol, upon the figure of Churchill. The latter, according to Mr. Baxter, "couldn't pick a winner in a stable of one horse." A year before that it was Anthony Eden who was the target for such gibes. The man who was virtually dismissed from the British cabinet because he refused to be a party to the cowardly hypocrisy of the retreat before Mussolini is the same man called back to direct one of the most critical campaigns in history.

The results so far obtained by Mr. Eden in the Mediterranean area are encouraging beyond all expectation. Yet the basic fact remains. Because we failed to face Mussolini's bluff when he stood alone we find ourselves forced, not to expel Mussolini from Italy, but to eradicate Hitler and German armies from that peninsula of destiny.

The principle of compound interest seems to work in other aims than that of money.

The whole present point in our experience in dealing with Mussolini seems to me now to bear on Japan. We are still trifling with the Japanese menace. Some of the more unmistakable war materials have been cut off. Others, such as wood products necessary for the manufacture of explosives, are still going out right here to Japan week after week from Canada.

Our governments have compelled all our citizens in the Far East to get out, as it is a matter of common knowledge that Japan's treaty with the Axis may compel her to attack us at any moment. Yet the "business as

TYPHOID ON WAY OUT

From Health League of Canada
All across the North American Continent typhoid fever is a disappearing disease. At the beginning of this century the rate of mortality for typhoid in the United States averaged 34 in every 100,000 of population; it dropped to less than one per 100,000 in 1939.

If the conditions prevailing before 1900 had continued the United States would now be having 44,000 typhoid deaths annually instead of 2,400.

The situation in Canada is in part better than that recorded for our neighbor. At the beginning of the century the typhoid death rate for this country was about 50.1 per 100,000 of population. In 1938, this rate had dropped to 1.8. In Ontario it was but one in every 100,000 while in Saskatchewan the rate was 0.9.

This improved condition in regard to what 40 years ago was a plague may be ascribed to a combination of factors: Better general education in health matters; better recognition of the principles of hygiene and most of all to the use of pure water and pasteurized milk.

THE HELPLESS CREDITOR

From Manchester Guardian

After eight months of occupation Denmark has now an outstanding clearing account with Germany of 400,000,000 kroner. That means a German debt of about £20,000,000, for which amount Denmark theoretically is entitled to buy goods in Germany. But the latter neither can, nor will, supply the goods required, and it appears clear from all official Danish statements that even the promises of very limited fuel deliveries have been broken.

HAWAII TRAVEL HERE PREDICTED

In a letter to the Victoria and Island Publicity Bureau, Riley H. Allen, editor of the Honolulu Star Bulletin, predicts a great many people will travel here from Hawaii this year.

Mr. Allen wrote the bureau on receiving tourist information on Victoria and the island and a picture of the recently-opened Thunderbird Park near the Crystal Garden.

"The picture and information sent will be published in an early edition," he wrote and went on to speak of the value of tourist advertising at the present time.

"In spite of the withdrawal of steamers from the Honolulu-Victoria-Vancouver run, a great many people from Hawaii will visit British Columbia this year," Mr. Allen said. "They have the 'B.C. habit' built up over several years past.

"I feel that the directors of the Evergreen Playground Association are extremely wise in maintaining their advertising this spring. Constant advertising will keep B.C. in the minds of thousands of potential or current travelers, and will be a great asset for your section of the country when the present war is over and the people of America return to more normal travel.

"That day will undoubtedly see a tremendous competition for the 'American tourist dollar' from several parts of the world.

"A favorable impression of B.C. created in the minds of Hawaiian travelers and prospective travelers now will be available in the years to come."

James A. Northey, Toronto, director of Canadian National Railways, who is at the Empress Hotel with his wife, says the company's business is progressing satisfactorily.

He made the observation that the C.N.R. expected to operate this year without showing a deficit and that the government was budgeting along that line.

House Hears Debate On Women's Place In Army

OTTAWA (CP) — Opportunities for the employment of women in connection with army work are distinctly limited, Defence Minister Ralston told the House of Commons yesterday in reply to a suggestion from John Diefenbaker, Conservative, Lake Centre, that a women's corps be formed.

The minister said that after gathering information on the use of women for military service in England he had a memorandum prepared by his staff which said there appeared to be room for only 1,500 women in positions in which they might replace men in the Canadian army.

MANY OFFER
This number was infinitesimal compared with the number of women offering their services. Women might be used to a limited extent as drivers and as cooks in permanent camps.

Clerical work in connection with field formations could not be performed by women, as the clerical staffs of such formations had to go into the field and ensure the conditions to which the units would be subject.

The broader question of using women in other fields of war activity was receiving careful study at the Department of National War Services under Hon. J. G. Gardiner.

"I am expecting that before very long we will be able at least to announce the best possible method of taking care of this situation and taking advantage of some of the offers we have received," said Col. Ralston.

The discussion took place on the war appropriations resolution.

Col. Ralston said the discussion illustrated the difficulties which sometimes confronted the government, for while Mr. Diefenbaker had urged the employment of women to replace men, Clarence Gillis, C.C.F., Cape Breton South, had protested the dismissal of men employed as shell inspectors at Hamilton to make way for women who would do the work at lower wages.

Mr. Diefenbaker said women had not received the recognition to which they were entitled and should be given a greater share in determining the outcome of the war.

Relation Between Arts Demonstrated

The close relation between the arts was demonstrated in the interesting address given by John Kyle in his address before the Victoria Musical Teachers' Association at their monthly meeting yesterday at the Y.W.C.A. Taking as his theme, "All art is one, architecture being the mother of the arts," Mr. Kyle traced the growth of music and painting in England from medieval times, showing that many of the great painters were also fine musicians. He showed some beautiful reproductions of the works of Gainsborough, Reynolds and Romney, and other noted British artists.

Miss MacQuinn, Daniels, pianist, interspersed the lecture with compositions by friends of the artists under discussion, playing a "Bourée" by Richard Jones; a Jig and Sarabande, by Matthew Dubourg, and a Hunting Tune, by William Boyce. Thomas Arne, the first composer to introduce women's voices into oratorio, was the outstanding composer of the period, the speaker stated. Miss Daniels closed the lecture with the playing of one of Arne's Allegros and "Rule Britannia."

Miss Ethel James, president, was in the chair, and Miss Gwen Harper moved a vote of thanks to the speaker. Members were reminded of the concert in aid of the Red Cross to be held at Fletcher Bros. tomorrow night at 8.

Friends Remember St. Joseph's With Many Gifts

Many old and new friends called at the Nurses' Home of St. Joseph's Hospital yesterday afternoon and left tangible evidence of their interest in the shape of generous gifts of money, sheets, pillowslips, towels, table covers and other welcome articles with which to replenish the hospital shelves.

The occasion was the annual linen shower of the hospital, and among the old friends who remembered it were Mr. and Mrs. Mayo Singh of Duncan, for many years benefactors of the hospital, who sent six pairs of beautiful woolen blankets.

The guests were welcomed by Mrs. Duncan McTavish, Mrs. A. C. Sinclair, Mrs. Harold Moore and Sister Mary Peter. In charge of the linen were Mrs. G. F. Aylward, Mrs. C. H. O'Halloran, Mother Provincial, Sister Superior, Sister Mary Dorothea and Sister Mary Kathleen.

Tea was served from a table arranged with an exquisite pale blue crystal bowl of daffodils, iris and tulips, and presiding were Mrs. F. M. Bryant, Mrs. George Hall, Mrs. Aylward and Mrs. O'Halloran. Student nurses assisted in serving.

During the tea hour, Mrs. McTavish read a gracious little note from Mrs. E. W. Hamber, regretting that she was unable to attend the "shower" and enclosing a donation.

A musical program, arranged by Mrs. E. McQuade, included songs by Mr. Sidney Chiverrall and Mrs. McQuade, accompanied by Mrs. C. C. Warn. Marcia Western gave great pleasure with her recitations, "The Rabbit With the Silver Fur" and "The New Duckling."

Mrs. J. W. Harrison, assisted by Mesdames E. R. Heal, J. Manson, F. Hayward, and J. Oliver, convened a successful St. Patrick's tea in the Royal Oak Community Hall, under the auspices of the R.O.W.I. home economics committee, on Wednesday afternoon. The Irish potato filled with shamrocks centred the tea tables, and daffodils and shamrock decorated the hall. The guests were welcomed by Mrs. L. H. MacQueen. A program included a preview of the operetta, "The Bamboo Box," by pupils of the Royal Oak School; and Irish songs by Mrs. D. W. Phillips, accompanied by Mrs. Fisher. Mrs. B. Hoole won the attendance prize and Mrs. C. Gaskell the cake. Mrs. F. Sharples gave a demonstration of spinning. Misses Pat Hutchison, Doreen Harrison, Grace Scott and Mrs. W. Levy assisted serving refreshments.

"They take away BABY'S TEETHING FEVER"

So writes Mrs. B. — of North Sydney. Then a Toronto mother says: "I used Baby's Own Tablets and the babies were always so good. No colic, no pain or trouble when teething. In fact, I hardly knew they were cutting their teeth as they never were any trouble at all."

Baby's Own Tablets are quick, safe and effective, soothing and easy to take. Contain no opiates or stupefying drugs. Try Baby's Own Tablets not only for teething troubles but also for colic, constipation, upset stomach and other simple ailments of babyhood. 13 cents and Mrs. W. Levy assisted serving refreshments.

WEDDINGS

MATHEWS-HUDSON

At a quiet wedding solemnized in St. Andrew's Cathedral, by the Rev. Father Gaudette, March 17, Mary Dellaphene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Hudson of Salmon Arm, B.C., became the bride of Peter M. Mathews, R.C.N.R., son of Mr. and Mrs. Harold M. Mathews of Powell River, B.C. After a short honeymoon in the Okanagan, the young couple will make their home in Victoria.

CHESWORTH-MARSON

In a setting of daffodils and lilies in the Pentecostal Tabernacle on Saturday evening, Rev. W. E. Robinson united in marriage Doris Ellen, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Marson, 2631 Rose Street, and Mr. George Fredrick Chesworth, only son of Mr. and Mrs. A. Chesworth, 204 Superior Street. Miss Wheeler played the wedding music and the choir was in attendance.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white satin gown with a train and long sleeves, a veil hung from a coronet of orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of lilies and rosebuds.

Mrs. G. Cormons of Nanaimo was matron of honor, in a frock of rose taffeta and matching hat, carrying a bouquet of carnations and snapdragons, and the bridesmaids, Miss Winnie Abbott, in lemon crepe, and Miss Irene Chesworth, in mauve, wore veils to match their frocks held in place with clusters of flowers, and carried bouquets of tulips and carnations.

The little flower-girl, four-year-old Sue Anna Dell Cosgrove, Calgary, wearing a blue taffeta frock veiled in ecru net, scattered primroses from a tiny basket in the path of the bride. Little Thelma Marson, niece of the bride, and Georgina Young, Nanaimo, were trainbearers dressed in pink taffeta, and all three wore floral wreaths in their hair. Mr. Norman Clark was best man, and the ushers were Messrs. Ray Whelams, Albert Francis, Dick Goodman and Ralph Meakes.

The reception was held in the K. of P. Hall in a setting of spring flowers. Mrs. Marson received in a gown of teal blue silk, and Mrs. Chesworth in Queen's blue with navy blue accessories. Both wore black accessories and corsage bouquets of carnations and rosebuds. A buffet supper was served, the bride's table being centred with the cake flanked by white candles and vases of pink carnations. Miss Wheeler played piano selections during the evening.

For a honeymoon up-island the bride left in a "soldier" blue and wine ensemble. Mr. and Mrs. Chesworth will live in their new home on Burnside Road.

Their trains are pulling out with 700 incipient tummy-aches—incipient, but there you are.

The girls had heard of the city and its food. So they tried to get it all in on a one-day visit.

Mrs. GERTRUDE GYATT
128 Morse Street, Toronto

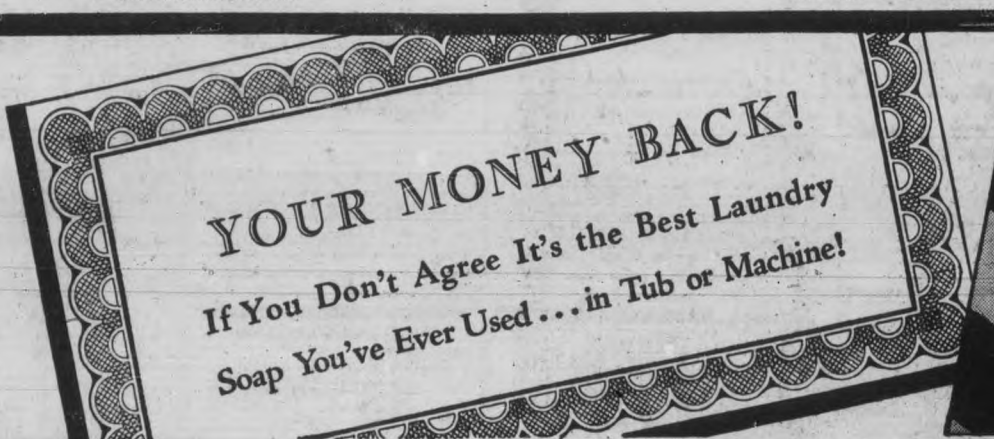

Last Monday, I used OXYDOL for my washing, for the first time. I hardly know how to begin to tell you just what I think of it. It's simply grand and my clothes—well, they were so white and clean-smelling! My wash was bigger than usual and though I never really did believe any soap could save me an hour on washday, I guess I've got to believe it now, after using Oxydol. For OXYDOL did save me an hour—compared to when I used to scrub and boil my clothes.

Mrs. DONALD WELCH
Nashwaakia, York Co.
N. B.

What started me using OXYDOL in the first place was seeing how white the lady next door got her clothes! Well, OXYDOL gets my clothes just as white, but that's not the only reason I continue to use it! I'm sold on its color safety, too. It leaves my washable colored things so nice and fresh-looking. I never worry about washday fade any more. One of my neighbors says her husband's colored shirts stay almost like new now that she washes with Oxydol. Yes, we're all sold on OXYDOL around here, for its color safety as well as for its wonderful whiteness!

Miss Applegate Sings Farewell

Miss Winnifred Applegate, talented young Victoria singer, whose voice has thrilled many local people in recent months, sang farewell to a large audience last night, prior to her departure early in April for Toronto, where she will continue her musical studies.

In the Empress Hotel ballroom this brilliant young singer was the leading artist on an attractive program arranged by the pupils of Prof. J. B. Hoffman, with whom Miss Applegate has studied for the last four and a half years.

The audience, delighted with the progress Miss Applegate has made, predicted big things for her in the future. Musical Victoria will follow with a great deal of interest, the work she accomplishes in Toronto.

NATURAL BEAUTY

Outstanding on the program was her rendition of "Casta Diva," the great aria from Bellini's "Norma." In this Miss Applegate revealed all the pure, natural beauty of her voice, its rich, full texture and wide range. She was equally delightful in such a simple old-fashioned song as "Carry Me Back to Old Virginia," this being a trio, in which she was heard with Jean Earl, contralto, and Thomas Crabbe, baritone. She was heard, too, in "Romany Life," by Victor Herbert, and Schubert's "Faith in Spring."

Her voice and that of Mr. Crabbe blended beautifully in "Tales of Hoffman," and she was heard in a trio from "Trovatore," singing with Mr. Crabbe and Marcus Wicks, tenor.

Miss Sheila Akenhead, lyric soprano, chose "Una Voce Poco Fa," from the "Barber of Seville." Miss Elaine Harte sang the "Blue Danube" waltz. Mr. Crabbe was heard in "Eri Tu," from Verdi's "Masked Ball," and Mr. Wicks in "Celeste Aida," Misses Verna Clarke and Kathleen Paulin sang "I Would That My Love," and Misses Bernice Fawcett and Jean Heaslip sang "Spring," by Franz Abt.

Others on the program were: Miss Marjorie Fraser, "Musette's Valse"; Jean Earl, "My Heart at the Sweet Voice"; Evelyn McGonigle, "The Cradle Song"; Mary Bong, "Spring's Awakening"; Harold Holstein-Rathlou, "Pilgrim's Song"; Lionel Walter, "Thine Alone"; Rudolf Holste-Rathlou, "Neapolitan Nights"; W. H. V. Davies, "Within This Hallowed Dwelling."

The Beethoven Choral Club, under the direction of Prof. Hoffman, gave several much-appreciated selections, among them being the "Soldiers' Chorus," Gounod's "Faust," the "Prayer" from "Masaniello," and Dvorak's "Going Home." Of wide interest and very nicely done was the "Spinning Wheel Quartette," from Plotow's "Martha," the singers being: Miss Akenhead, Miss Earl, Lionel Walter and Thomas Crabbe.

Prof. Hoffman, referring to Miss Applegate, spoke of her as his "star pupil," and the audience agreed with him. He wished her the best of luck in the east, and said everyone would look forward to her first concert on her return.

With the Forces Ion Acland, 25, Dies in Mishap

PILOT OFFICER ION ACLAND

Pilot officer Ion Hugh Acland, 25, only son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Acland of Cowichan Bay, formerly of Victoria, has been killed in a flying accident in England.

His parents received the following cable from the British Air Ministry: "Regret to inform you P.O. Ion Acland reported to have lost his life as a result of an aircraft accident on March 18, 1941. Letter follows. Air Council expresses profound sympathy."

Young Acland was born in Victoria and attended Oak Bay High School. He was early prominent in athletics and for several years played with Revels in Canadian football and for the Crimson Tide in English rugby. Experts rated him one of the finest rugby forwards ever to be developed in British Columbia, and he played in this position for Victoria Blacks during the 1935-36 season. For a time he played club rugby with Oak Bay Wanderers.

Acland grew up around the boats at Willows and Cadboro Bay and developed into a fine yachtsman, with a gift for boat designing. He won many yachting events and took part in many international regattas, being a popular junior member of Royal Victoria Yacht Club.

A year ago he entered the Royal Canadian Air Force. He headed the first class of R.C.A.F. observers graduated under the Empire air training plan, attaining 93 per cent in his final examinations. Last October he won his wings as an observer and went immediately overseas. For the last three months he has been flying almost nightly with Royal Air Force bombers over Germany and German-occupied territory of Europe.

His only sister, Ione, is Mrs. Charles C. Guthrie of San Francisco.

Among those invited to the dance are Major-General R. O. Alexander, Commodore W. J. R. Beech, R.C.N., and Air Commodore A. E. Godfrey, R.C.A.F.

Island Boy Gets R.C.A.F. Commission

Twenty members of flight 17, who graduated from November 4 service flying training school in Saskatoon last Monday, have received commissions.

Graduating as leading aircraftmen in the morning, they became sergeant-pilots in the afternoon and next morning were pilot-officers.

Among those receiving commissions were: F. W. Shorrocks, Wellington, Vancouver Island, and E. A. Alexander, L. E. Gagnon and R. C. Kémnu, all of Vancouver.

Leave in Ireland

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (CP)—Belfast proved a home away from home to two members of the Canadian (Active) Army.

The pair, Pte. R. F. Stewart, who enlisted in Vancouver, and Pte. A. Cruthers, who enlisted in Edmonton, came to the Ulster capital on leave to visit friends and liked it so much they plan to spend their next leave here.

Cruthers was born in Crawfordburn village and the parents of both soldiers hail from Bangor district.

"We feel everybody here is our friend," said Stewart. "Wherever we go we find ourselves chatting away to people as if we'd known them for years."

Canadian Soldiers Happy in Iceland

Health of the Canadian troops in Iceland is excellent and morale high, according to information just received by the director of auxiliary services, Department of Militia and Defence. Ice hockey and skating are favorite outdoor pastimes, and table tennis, Chinese checkers and jigsaw puzzles form chief indoor entertainment.

Eighteen recreational huts in various parts of the island are equipped with radio and excellent reception from Canada and England is reported. Foster Hewitt's hockey broadcast is one of the favorite programs, and the men follow the games with keenest interest.

MOBILE CANTEN

A mobile canteen operated by the Salvation Army travels from place to place where the men are stationed, distributing socks, stationery, magazines and comforts, and one of the greatest treats was a supply of Canadian chocolate bars which arrived in January.

Auxiliary services are advised the troops are well supplied with knitted goods, and it is estimated that every man has at least three pairs of good socks. There is also ample equipment on hand for baseball, soccer, rugby and other Canadian sports when the weather improves.

Voluntary organizations operating under the direction of the directorate of auxiliary services are responsible for the happy conditions which brighten what would otherwise be a rather monotonous existence, the report concludes.

AIR FORCE ENTERTAINED

Hudson's Bay Beaver Club concert party gave another concert for men of the Air Force. Little Beverley Sanderson, Ray Evenden and Frankie Rodwell scored a direct hit with tap dances and songs. Darkie and Pinky Sanderson made repeated hits with their imitable harmony and mannerisms. The specialty numbers, Mexican melodies and Hawaiian chorus were very well received, and the charm of the ladies' sextette won many encores. Others who contributed to the success of the evening were Ken Berger and his tenor guitar, Pat Campbell and his accordion, the Harmony Six and Dick Merrick and his guitar. Mae King and Mrs. Sanderson acted as accompanists for the evening.

After the concert the whole party was entertained at the officers' mess.

DACCA BURNS, FACTIONS FIGHT

BOMBAY (CP)—A large part of Dacca, in the province of Bengal, was reported afire today following a Hindu-Moslem quarrel which started in a drinking shop. The military was called out to preserve order.

Police twice opened fire on the rioters and casualties were reported to include 14 killed and 100 wounded.

A steamship, four smaller boats and a freight shed on the Buriganga River and many shops in the town were set ablaze.

V.H.S. Pep Meeting

Another rousing pep meeting was held at Victoria High School yesterday during the lunch hour. One thousand students crowded the auditorium to listen to an amusing variety program staged for the purpose of advertising the Camosun, which will be issued to students on May 31.

Jim McKeachie made a witty master of ceremonies. The program opened with a fashion show staged by Madame Michels' Dress Shop. The models were Ken Mitchell, Bud Peterson, George Beck, Tom McKay and Don Partridge. Peggy Butterfield, the school's songbird, rendered "I'll Give You My Word" and "I Hear a Rhapsody." Ted Shadbolt, pianist, gave an interesting exhibition of the different tempos of dance music. Tick McCoy sang "Trees."

The behind the scenes crew of "The Tempest" put on a humorous act entitled "The Storm Symphony," in which they employed all the sound effects used in the play.

A pleasing number was the introduction to the student body of a new harmony trio, composed of Netta Hunter, Edna Ford and Jean Sinclair. They sang two of the most popular numbers of the day, "Perfidia" and "The Wise Old Owl."

'Kin Klub Kwiz' Has Big Opening

Questions and answers flew back and forth at the Shrine auditorium last night when the "Kin Klub Kwiz" had its opening night before an audience of 400 people.

Prizes ranging from $1 to $5 were competed for but the $30 main prize was not awarded as the lucky ticket holder failed to answer the question asked him.

The prize will be carried over to the next contest when $60 will be offered.

The master of ceremonies was Charles Patrick and the quiz was conducted by George Fatt assisted by Ted Sanders.

The program was staged in aid of the Kinsmen Club Boys' Band which played during the contest under the direction of Al Prescott.

Proposal for Gift Of Wheat Rejected

REGINA (CP)—A resolution before the Saskatchewan Legislature asking that the federal government offer 100,000,000 bushels of Canadian wheat as a gift to the United Kingdom was defeated 30-13.

Before the vote, Agriculture Minister Taggart said such a gift would embarrass not only Great Britain and the Canadian government but would embarrass the delicate system of financing as between Canada and the United Kingdom.

H. K. Warren, Unity member for Bonaville, in introducing the resolution, pictured Canada as a member of the British Empire and said that as a member of that family it was Canada's duty to assist by such a donation as he proposed.

Mr. Taggart commended the spirit in which the motion was offered, but the suggestion, he thought, was based on assumptions which were not altogether sound.

"Great Britain at present is trying to increase its own wheat production and the gift of wheat to Britain, even if accepted, would not mean a let-up in British home production," he said.

ST. JOHN'S A.Y.P.A.

An interesting program of motion pictures was given to the branch by Mr. Simmons of the Forestry Department at its recent meeting. Next Tuesday Alan Paver will give brief sketches of his life in the past year, followed by a talk by Rev. George Biddle. On Wednesday, March 26, the branch will be the guest of the Young People's Society of the Church of Our Lord.

HAPPY VALLEY

Luxton and Happy Valley Women's Institute held their monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. W. Henderson. It was decided to sponsor prize giving, in co-operation with the Happy Valley Parent-Teacher Association, to school children for vegetable growing. Messrs. A. W. Weeks and F. J. Day were appointed judges. Plans were made for a daffodil tea April 23.

SYDNEY (AP)—Hundreds of thousands of Australians stood on the shores of the flag-decked Sydney Harbor here today and cheered arrival of seven United States warships, headed by the flagship Chicago.

The American visit, part of a training cruise, was hailed in the Australian press and in official Australian circles as a token of Australian-American friendship and the tumultuous ovation for the 2,000 officers and men from the United States was a further expression of that friendship.

Bad visibility delayed arrival of the squadron by 70 minutes. As the Chicago, flying the flag of Rear-Admiral Newton, tied up at Woolloomooloo, planes of the Royal Australian Air Force dipped in salute overhead and a 21-gun salute sounded over the harbor. The salute, fired from Middle Head batteries, was the first in Australia since the beginning of the second Great War.

Shortly before the arrival A. W. Fadden, acting Prime Minister, sent the following wireless message to Rear-Admiral Newton: "Welcome on behalf of the people of the Australian Commonwealth. We have the same interests, are facing the same problems and share the mutual desire to consolidate national security and live at peace with the world."

Mr. Fadden later announced the squadron would visit Brisbane for three days. Besides the heavy cruiser Chicago, the cruiser Portland, flotilla-leader Clark and destroyers Reid, Cassin, Conynham and Downes are included in the training cruise.

DEPART FROM AUCKLAND

AUCKLAND, N.Z. (CP)—Showered with gifts from the city and private organizations, six visiting United States warships left Auckland for an undisclosed destination today. The flagship of the visiting group, the light cruiser Brooklyn, flew Maori and New Zealand flags in addition to the Stars and Stripes at the masthead.

As the ship pulled out a senior officer called: "I hope to see you again soon."

The gifts included 500 lamb carcasses and 1,000 cases of apples.

ERNEST W. GIBSON, national chairman of the committee to defend America by aiding the Allies, has advocated convoys for ships with supplies for Great Britain.

"If Hitler is able to sink two ships or 10 ships, let's keep cool," Gibson said. "Let's stay out of the war and keep furnishing the needed supplies. We will only go to war when we want to and not when Hitler wants us to."

England Asks More Red Cross Help

A cable from Canadian Red Cross headquarters in London, England, has called for unlimited quantities of blankets, quilts and relief clothing, according to word received by F. W. Tuffrey, Vancouver, commissioner of the B.C. division. More shipments of socks, sweaters, scarfs, helmets, gloves, mitts, pyjamas, bedjackets, dressing gown, T. bandages and washcloths will be urgently needed soon.

"We have already disposed of all available supplies for which there was a demand amounting since the first of the year to 1,211,657 articles," the cable concluded.

This figure shows the urgency of Britain's desperate need, Mr. Tuffrey pointed out. The total number of articles given out since January is as great as that for the whole of 1940. In addition, 502,660 surgical dressings have been requisitioned as well as 598 cases of relief clothing which contain from 30 to 70 complete outfits.

Unceasing air raids have created staggering demands for relief and the three great warehouses of the Canadian Red Cross overseas have pumped steady streams of supplies into devastated areas.

WAVE LENGTH STATEMENT SOON

OTTAWA (CP)—A statement on the effect of new wave-length allotments provided for Canadian broadcasting stations will be made in the House of Commons, Munitions Minister Howe told the House today.

He was given a list of questions by M. J. Coldwell, acting C.C.F. House leader, regarding the Havana International Radio Agreement which goes into effect March 29. Mr. Howe said he would submit the questions to technical officers of his department and give the answers later.

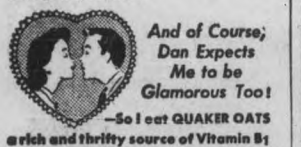

Mr. Coldwell suggested the possibility the new agreement might prove a weakening of the policy of national control of radio broadcasting.

Letters to the Editor

LIGHT AND WATER

I see by your paper of Tuesday the C.C.F. is demanding a cut in the rates of electric light in the city. It's high time something was done about these high rates. We are certainly behind any other city. Our mayor and aldermen are remiss in their duties to allow this to continue. The citizens are worthy of more consideration. The water rates are a crime against the people. The water rates wherever we have lived had been paid quarterly and at that cheaper than here, the three months' rate being less than here for two months and the people got a rebate on the payment. What's the matter with our mayor and aldermen?

COMMUNITY ACTION

I would like to bring to the notice of the small fruit growers of Saanich, the fact that there is in their district the Saanich Credit Union which after months of hard work is a going concern. During the past year we have gathered each month to discuss community problems on a co-operative basis, and have solved many of our difficulties. A situation arose last year, when, owing to the war, the bottom dropped out of the small fruit market. The result was a waste of good food.

Of course, the government was to blame, the government is always to blame when anything like that happens, but it just so happens that there are a few of us who think this is a community problem, and a solution can be found if we can get together and talk the matter over on a co-operative basis.

Fruit growers and anyone interested are invited to a meeting at the Y.W.C.A. on March 22 at 8 p.m., under the auspices of the educational committee of the Co-operative Consumers' Society, and the extension department of the University of British Columbia, where they will hear two speakers on the "Credit Union Movement" and "Progress of Co-operatives in the West."

The government in 1939 passed the Credit Unions Act, the three principals are: To encourage thrifty by providing a safe, convenient and attractive medium for the investment of savings of its members; to promote industry, eliminate usury, and increase the purchasing power of its members by enabling them to borrow for productive or other beneficial purposes at a reasonable cost; to train its members in business methods and self-government and bring them to a realization of the value of co-operation.

JOHN S. H. NOTLEY.

INVESTIGATE!

My attention has been drawn to the letter of John Christie in reply to the portion of my communication of January 31 which you published.

I can well understand that, at first sight, it seems incredible to Mr. Christie that there could be any close connection between the international money power and Bolshevism. However, I trust that the two following random quotations from responsible men will at least indicate to him the need for investigating this question more fully:

U.S. Congressman Louis T. McFadden, chairman of House of Representatives banking and currency committee and ex-president Pennsylvania Bankers' Association, in Congress, June 19, 1932—

"... They (the international bankers) instigated the separate peace between Germany and Russia, and thus drove a wedge between the Allies in the World War. They financed Trotsky's mass meetings of discontent and rebellion in New York. They paid Trotsky's passage from New York to Russia so that he might assist in the destruction of the Russian empire. They fomented and instigated the Russian revolution, and they placed a large fund of American dollars at Trotsky's disposal in one of their branch banks in Sweden."

Lt.-Col. A. H. Lane in "The Alien Menace"—"Though the Communists profess to hate capitalism and order the paid agents in England to cry 'Down with the capitalists,' the leaders in Russia never fail to give the international financiers a hearty welcome whenever they visit the U.S.S.R. When Felix M. Warburg of New York visited Russia in 1927 he had a great reception, and the speeches delivered on that occasion indicated that the Bolshevik leaders and the leaders of world finance understood each other very well, that their aims were not dissimilar, and altogether they were a united family working in their respective ways for a common end."

PHILPOTT INCORRECT?

Elmore Philpott, writing upon "Hitler, Unemployment and Finance," made statements that are completely contrary to the facts as reported by careful students and competent observers.

He states the rise in "employment" in Germany since 1932 took place because Hitler "put millions of men in the army, millions of men and women in armament factories, stole the jobs of some hundreds of thousands of Germans by giving those jobs to his own favorites."

All this is contradicted by the article in the New York Times Magazine of February 16, by Calvin B. Hoover, consulting economist to the advisory commission of the American Council of National Defence.

Mr. Hoover points out that not only did Germany undertake a huge armament program but also, through the re-employment of millions of workers in consumer-goods industries, provided the whole nation with an over-all net increase in consumption goods and services; that the per capita real income of the average fully-employed German worker rose by 20 per cent while average hours worked increased 15 per cent.

Mr. Hoover stated: "How to account for this paradox of more guns and more butter? Was it black magic? Not at all. Hitler simply took a country whose economic machine was operating at only half capacity and by the injection of purchasing power through his armament program put the machine at full production. Further, he increased employment in industry to a point higher than ever before and lengthened hours of labor, although to a point very greatly above what they had been before the depression."

Mr. Philpott is equally unreliable in his findings on German financial policy. He believes that Hitler "financed" German recovery by the printing of paper money. This is completely opposite to the facts, as anyone can discover for himself by reading the article in February Harper's Magazine, "The German Financial Revolution," by Dal Hitecock.

The truth is that Germany financed her rise in consumer goods production and her huge armament program by the careful issue of ordinary, every-day bank credit, which was prevented from causing an inflationary rise in prices by a continued rise in the supply of consumer goods and services, and a careful and all-embracing tax program designed to siphon off from consumer's pockets all purchasing power in excess of that necessary to buy the goods actually on the market for sale at any given time.

New B.C. Airport Work Rushed

PRINCE GEORGE, B.C. (CP)—Claire R. Dobbin of Lethbridge, Alta., federal Department of Transport Inspector, said on arrival here, construction of Prince George's new $400,000 airport has been ordered and that work will proceed as quickly as possible.

Inspector Dobbin flew to Prince George in company with F. Procter, Vancouver construction engineer; radio engineer J. B. Knox of Ottawa, and E. H. Scott, Ottawa engineer and contractor. The transport officials inspected the proposed site of the new airport three miles from the city on the Prince George-Quessell highway.

Procter said he hoped work on the project would be in full swing within the next 30 days.

Restricted Wage Measure Deployed

The Victoria and District Trades and Labor Council last night went on record deploring federal regulations forbidding any union from seeking wage increases exceeding 5 per cent a year. That position was taken as the labor group reviewed statistics showing the cost of living to have advanced 13.7 per cent since September, 1939.

During the meeting the council approved appeals from E. G. Rowbottom for support for the Canadian War Services Fund campaign, starting March 24, and from Mrs. A. H. Spur, director of the hospitality and entertainment committee of the Auxiliary War Services, asking members to open their homes to members of the forces on Sundays.

Mr. Rowbottom remarked on the amount set as the Victoria and Island objective in the war services drive.

After endorsing the two moves in principle, the labor council instructed delegates to carry strong recommendations of support to their individual unions.

C. Smith, delegate of the sheet metal workers' local, was admitted to the council at the meeting.

A report from C. Chivers, delegate to the Family Welfare Association, reported 15 cases had applied to that organization during February for supplementary assistance, stating the returns from their steady or partial employment were insufficient to sustain them.

Appointment of the legislative committee, including Messrs. Chivers, Cook, Torrence and Peck, was confirmed, as was that of the press committee, composed of D. McMillan and G. Baker.

LOGGER DIES

Coroner C. W. Pitts will hold an inquest tonight.

Government Aid Plan for Mining

To meet the war demand for gold and other minerals, the B.C. government will go into the development of promising mine prospects and properties that are idle for lack of funds, it was announced here today on authority of Hon. W. J. Asselstine, Minister of Mines.

Mr. Asselstine is conferring today with business and mining men in Nelson, where it is proposed to launch the scheme in an experimental way this year. If successful, it will be extended.

The new policy will put the government into the mining business in a small way, but on a nonprofit basis.

Where a mining property has sufficient ore in sight to pay for the cost of extraction, the government will take over the operation of the property and carry on until private interests feel warranted in taking over development on a major scale.

An appropriation has been made to be used as a revolving fund, which will be reimbursed from the smelter returns on ore extracted.

METALS FOR WAR

The prime object of the plan is to stimulate production of minerals much needed for war purposes. It was worked out by R. J. Macdonald, government mining engineer, after conferences between Mr. Asselstine and his engineers on methods of stepping up the output of metals.

By taking over actual operation itself, the department proposes to fill the gap in mining development between the time a prospector or individual operator uncovers a reasonable amount of ore and a substantial company can step in with large-scale development. In this way properties may be brought into production that would otherwise remain idle.

SHIP ORE OUT

The government will put in its own crew and take the returns from ore shipments, but will retain only as much as has been spent in development, the owner getting the balance.

Under agreement with mine owners, the government will be able to cease work at any time it appears a property will not pay. On the owners, if they think a property developed enough so that they can carry on, may end the arrangement on sufficient notice.

The operations could be carried out on a scale greater than could be handled by an individual, but less than a company would undertake for full development. On some properties, portable machinery might be installed. On others hand work only might be necessary. One drill compressor working three shifts probably would be the maximum of machine work.

This year's experimental operations probably will be in the Nelson area, which has many small, semi-developed gold properties which are easy of access. This will permit economical working conditions, the department feels.

—remember her daily HALIBORANGE

The Nicest Way of Taking Halibut Liver Oil. She needs added sources of vitamins A and D to make up for the absence of summer sunshine and fresh vegetables. The pleasant way to give these vitamins in natural form is by a daily dose of Haliborange. Haliborange can make all the difference to a child's resistance. It is twice as rich in vitamins A and D as Cod Liver Oil of average B.P. standard. The addition of a double-concentrated juice obtained from fresh, luscious oranges makes Haliborange pleasing to the palate of the most fastidious child. No fishy, oily taste. Children ask for more. Adults, too, find Haliborange a splendid aid for building up correct nutrition and maintaining normal health. Try it to-day. Each gram of Haliborange contains 192 I.U. vitamin A, 114 I.U. vitamin D.

MARIAN ANDERSON, acclaimed as one of the world's greatest singers, has pledged to education the $10,000 Edward A. Bok award conferred on her this week.

The award was established in 1921 by Edward A. Bok for the person who has "performed an act or contributed to a service calculated to advance the best interest of Philadelphia."

WHY DO YOU GROW OLD?

Most people do not realize that muscles and nerves grow stronger by using, not by resting. The digestive organs and eliminatory processes grow stronger upon rougher, well-mineralized natural foods because they get more exercise. Our bodies do not lose the power to do these things that younger bodies can do because they grow old, they grow old because they stop doing the things young bodies do.

I am sure of these things. My foods and activities are radically different from the conventional, and in my 33rd year I have a body that seems to grow younger instead of older as years roll by.

I am convinced that men and women headed for the human scrap heap in what is really middle life, can rebuild themselves to that mentally and physically they will be as young people. How? I can only say here, that diet is the first most important step. One third of my diet is composed of my natural whole-grain cereals, Dr. Jackson Meal (formerly Roman Meal) Baked Pudding and Lishus, and my alkaline beverage, Kofy Sub. I partake freely of milk, fresh fruits and raw or lightly steamed vegetables. What this diet has done for me it can and will do for you.

STOYADINOVIC NOW EXPATRIATE—An A.P. dispatch today from Belgrade said that, according to a qualified source, former Premier Milan Stoyadinovic had been exiled from Yugoslavia because he attempted to regain power and align Yugoslavia with the Axis. Stoyadinovic had been accused of pro-German sympathies. The source said he was sent over the Yugoslav frontier into Greece. The above picture showing him shaking hands with Hermann Goering was taken during a visit to Germany while he was Premier.

Miss May Smith, an Easter bride-elect, was honored by her office colleagues of the King's Printer's Department, provincial government, when the Misses Evelyn Slater, Margaret Matthews and Lillian Parfitt entertained in her honor at a miscellaneous shower Wednesday evening at the home of Mrs. A. L. Bagshaw, 3440 Linwood Avenue. A corsage bouquet of Talleman roses was presented to the bride-to-be and similar corsages of carnations and freesias to the bride's mother, Mrs. I. Smith, and the groom's mother, Mrs. J. H. Kirby. The many useful gifts were concealed in a beautifully-decorated Easter basket, which was presented to the bride-elect by little Darla and Joy Bagshaw. Games and contests were enjoyed by the guests, after which a buffet supper was served from a prettily-appointed table covered with lace cloth and centered with a bowl of spring flowers and tall green tapers in silver sconces. Mrs. A. L. Bagshaw presided at the tea urn. Those invited were: Miss May Smith, Mrs. I. Smith, Mrs. J. H. Kirby, Mrs. H. A. McCaw, Mrs. E. McCabe, Mrs. J. Foster, Mrs. B. C. Gibson, Mrs. J. Jones, Mrs. A. ### Canadian Soldiers Praised for Courage

LONDON (CP)—Two members of the Royal Canadian Ordnance Corps have been mentioned in Canadian corps routine orders for their courage in saving a number of laundry vehicles during a raid on a port in England.

The men, armament staff Sgt. W. N. Tripp of Yorkton, Sask., and Pte. R. R. Graham of Regina, were on duty in the neighborhood of the laundry when high explosive and incendiary bombs were dropped, causing considerable damage to the building and nearby premises.

The laundry was set afire and, ignoring the falling bombs, Tripp and Graham entered the building, started one of the automobiles inside and towed all the transport vehicles to safety.

"The action of these two soldiers has received the highest praise and thanks from the proprietors of the laundry," routine orders said. "Throughout, they displayed great initiative and disregard for their personal safety, worthy of the best traditions of the service."

"The senior officer, Canadian military headquarters, has been pleased to commend the action of these soldiers. This act of distinguished conduct will be recorded in their regimental conduct sheets."

CONSIDER ACTION TO SECURE DEBTS

OTTAWA (CP)—"Action the government considers just" will be taken should provinces able to reduce their indebtedness to the government fail to do so before their next maturities fall due, it was stated authoritatively here.

Questioned in respect to what action might be taken in such a case, Finance Minister Ilsley said that such maturities had always been renewed in the past. If the provinces did not pay their maturities or reduce them as they fell due this year, their reasons would be considered and such action taken as the government considered just, either by renewal or otherwise.

Correspondence with Alberta and British Columbia in respect to possible payments being made on their indebtedness to the Dominion was tabled in the Commons Tuesday.

ALBERTA CANNOT PAY

EDMONTON (CP)—Provincial Treasurer Low announced the Alberta government will not be able to meet more than $4,000,000 in treasury bills maturing in the next fiscal year, and he presumed these would be renewed by the Dominion government.

Mr. Low issued a prepared statement commenting on an announcement by Finance Minister Ilsley that the province would have to furnish complete details of its financial position so the Dominion government can consider application for renewals.

Alberta will not be in a position to meet either a $1,946,000 maturity April 15 or a $2,448,000 maturity June 1, the statement said.

Big Railway Mounted Howitzer Limbers Up for Action

On the alert for the first sign of invasion, British artillerymen keep this railway howitzer ready for action somewhere along the English coast. These huge pieces combine mobility and devastating fire power and long range. Heavy shells, weighing nearly 700 pounds each (left), could wreak havoc in any army the Nazi tried to move in barges across the Channel. British soldiers practice serving the gun, concealed under a camouflage net. Muzzle pointed into the sky, the 12-inch piece (right) stands ready to hurl a rain of steel against invaders of the tight little island.

INDIA MUSTERS MEN TO MEET ANY MENACE—India, a vast reservoir of manpower and materials for the Empire, will play an increasingly important part in the war effort if the spotlight of conflict is turned on the Far East. Like Australia, India is watching closely Japan's growing aggressiveness. Burma, a former Indian province, borders on Thailand and French Indo-China. Malaya, Singapore and the Netherlands East Indies are not far away. Peace-time strength of the Indian army, excluding British troops, is 160,000 men. This number is being expanded to 500,000, and more than 100,000 recruits already have been trained. Additional recruits are being enrolled, 12,000 to 15,000 a month. Some 60,000 men are serving overseas, in the United Kingdom, Middle East, Aden and Malaya. Communiques from Cairo told of the part the Indians played in the Libyan campaign and they are taking part, too, in warfare in other sectors of the African front. The Khyber Pass, on India's northwest frontier, here patrolled by British tanks, is the home of warriors. Tribesmen trained in fighting here have played their part in the British sweep through Libya.

END OF WORLD OF TOMORROW—Only structural steel framework remains of the imposing trylon and perisphere which served as the theme of the New York World's Fair. Three-fourths of fair construction has been demolished.

P.M. MEETS MASCOT OF HIS OLD BATTALION—During a recent tour of inspection, Winston Churchill visited the battalion of the Royal Scots Fusiliers, of which he was commander during World War I. "P.M." is shown here making friends with "Sandy," the battalion mascot, who was present on parade.

SHOULDER TO SHOULDER—United States and Canadian pilots leave the vessel that brought them to England to augment the Royal Air Force. The men were given their last, final training in Canada under the Empire Air Training Scheme.

FOR LONDON FIREMEN—The employees of Canadian Johns-Manville Co., have launched a fund to buy 10,000 pairs of asbestos gloves for heroic firemen in London, and the company is manufacturing them at cost. This picture gives an idea of how the gloves may be used in handling incendiary bombs and burning materials without danger of burning fingers.

CAME TO CONQUER—STAY AS PRISONERS—Il Duce told his Italian soldiers the Greeks would be easy to conquer; but these Italian soldiers went to Albania, where they found the Greeks were not so "easy" after all. Sullen and unkempt—with one of their number evidently in great pain—these Italian prisoners are shown on the hard trek to a prison camp on Greek territory.

Governor-General and Princess Alice Inspect Canada's War Industry

Canada's biggest presses, in the General Motors plant at Oshawa, took the interest of Princess Alice when she and the Governor-General went through the factory where gun tractors and military vehicles are made. At left, she presses a button to send 15,000 pounds of pressure down on a piece of steel. Several stages later, right, she examines the finished product. At centre, the Earl of Athlone watches while David Nothhaft, inspector on the assembly line, applies a gauge. Both visitors asked many questions.

By PETE SALLAWAY

BRITISH COLUMBIA Basketball Association officials have made it certain the remaining game or games of the Dominion Varsity series starting at the Wilfrid Laurier night will be crammed with action. They have announced their decision to stick by the referees named to handle the games—Bob Macmurchie, Victoria, and George Siborne, Vancouver. This action was taken despite a strong protest on the part of the Dominos. The local club asked for a change, and a rightly so. There was nothing wrong in their requesting new officials for the remaining games.

However, the B.C. leaders have decided Macmurchie and Siborne are capable of finishing out the series. At least, they will be on the floor Friday night. In view of the Dominos' protest, and the strong feeling among local fans that the Dominos did not get any kind of a break in the opening two games, Macmurchie and Siborne are going to be on the spot. And we mean the spot. When the Victoria fans get it in their heads to ride the refs they really go to town. And it takes mighty good whistle tooters to retain their heads and officiate as they may be capable of under such conditions.

These same provincial playoffs have proven the death knell of some mighty fine referees. Remember the grief and hard words such well-known officials as Alan LeMarquand, Tommy Macdonald, Joe Polley, Bill Levy, Ralph Thomas, J. Lewis and others, too numerous to mention, had to stomach. And how many of them are working with the whistle now? As we have stated odds of times, it is a series that calls for neutral officials. Victoria fans are bitter in their dealings against anything that flavors Vancouver, and the feeling is mutual on the mainland. Look how

The Dominos were booed by the packed houses at Varsity gym. You can bet your last dollar the students will be greeted in the same manner over here.

Mainland scribes make a weak attempt to belittle the Dominos for squawking against the referees. Well, it is certain Varsity would not make any protest after taking the first two games. A winning club is not likely to ask any changes.

With Macmurchie and Siborne slated to work Friday's game, it would be a good idea for the Dominos to arrange a get-together with the officials and get the lowdown on just how they intend to interpret certain rules. Local players claim the referees, especially Siborne, are all wet in their calls on blocking. There's only one way for the Dominos to get things straightened out. Ask the officials just how they define the rule and handle themselves on the floor accordingly.

Looking over the rule book we can find nothing about blocking being illegal as long as there is no personal contact. All the big college and independent ball clubs in the United States use block and screen plays. Of course, they have the advantage of first-class refereeing. And all major clashes are handled by neutral men.

Messrs. Macmurchie and Siborne should take a good look at their rule book and read carefully the following comment by Graham Towers, noted authority on basketball rules: "Everyone will agree that the average basketball game produces many fouls, without adding thereto those infractions which result from deliberate attempts to draw fouls. An excess of fouls destroys interest, causes ill feeling and places an additional burden upon officials."

Trotter, Sparks Star

Cardinals Tie I.X.L.

VANCOUVER (CP)—It's a six of one and half a dozen of the other proposition in the two-game total-point series for the British Columbia women's senior "A" basketball championship title.

Victoria Cardinals and Vancouver I.X.L.'s will take the floor on even terms in the second game here tonight after battling to a 37 to 37 deadlock in the opener last night.

The diminutive Victorians had the game all but in the bag when a last minute foul enabled the taller Vancouver team to draw even and split the points.

Two little Cardinals—Jane Trotter and Lou Sparks—accounted for the majority of Victoria's points. The former, a fast-stepping winger, hit the basket for a total of 12, while Lou was a close second with 11. Alice Dalgleish, rangy I.X.L. centre, paced the Vancouver team when she rattled in a total of 17 points.

Vancouver had a slight edge in aggression but lacked shooting ability, wasting 50 per cent of their shots with hasty attempts. Cardinals, on the other hand, displayed superior teamwork and accurate control on long shots, but fell down on free throws and close-in efforts.

CARDS DOWN AT HALF

I.X.L. held a one-point lead of 13 to 12 at the end of the first quarter and led 21 to 19 at the halfway mark. A third period surge sent the Vancouver squad into a five-point lead of 31 to 26 before going into the final stanza. Victoria took the floor with renewed vigor for the last stand and succeeded in cutting the lead and drawing even at 32 to 32 with an early burst.

Cardinals then forged into a two-point lead and seemed about to run up a commanding lead, but a nice angle shot by Thelma Scott seconds later put them on even terms again at 34 to 34.

Miss Dalgleish, who paced the Vancouver third period scoring spree, sent her team into the lead again with a neat one-hand shot, but the fighting Victorians took advantage of a free throw to climb to within one point at 36 to 35.

It was the Cardinals that broke the knotted count this time when Miss Trotter broke with a clear field to sink what appeared the winning basket only two minutes from time.

About a minute later Miss Trotter robbed herself of winning honors when she fouled Miss Dalgleish, who sank the resulting free shot.

Assists Won Title

Cowley Sets Record

MONTREAL (CP)—Virtue's own reward was lost last night in the scramble of honors for Boston's Bill Cowley, the man who picked the biggest plum in the just-completed National Hockey League season by trying to help the other fellow.

The 29-year-old Cowley, holder of the 1940-41 scoring crown, made unselfishness a paying proposition to turn the trick. Only 10th among actual marksmen by his 17 goals, the Bruin center gained 45 points helping someone else score to run up the second highest total in league history.

The 45 assists served a simultaneous purpose of cracking a record that had stood for nine seasons. Set by Joe Primeau of Toronto Maple Leafs' famous "kid line" in the 1931-32 season, the previous assist record was 37. Although awaiting a final check of statistics by N.H.L. record-keepers to make it official, Cowley's 62-point performance was outstanding by far among the individual feats.

BELOW PAR PERFORMANCES

The total of 26 goals scored by New York Rangers' Byran Hextall in leading the actual marksmen was ordinary while the six shutouts turned in by goalie Frank Brimsek of Boston and the 99 goals allowed by Walter (Turk) Broda of Toronto were both below par for leaders. In the same vein, the 87 penalty minutes served by Detroit's Jimmy Orlando didn't even rate with some of the dubio's hoppers gained by Reginald Horner in his swashbuckling days on the Toronto defense.

Described by coach Ralph (Cooney) Weiland as the "last of the great stickhandlers," Cowley took over the scoring lead early in the season and increased his margin steadily. He finished 18 points ahead of second place. The fight for the second berth was a tight one, with five players finishing tied at 44 points each. Tied with Syd Apples of Toronto were teammate Gordie Drillon, Lynn Patrick and Hextall, both of the Rangers, and Syd Howe of Detroit.

All the five gained the "20-goal" circle, while Roy Conacher of Boston and Toronto's Svenney Schirmer were the only others to enter the select group—each getting 24 tallies.

With Cowley supplanting a teammate, Milt Schmidt, as scoring champion, Broda replaced Dave Kerr of the Rangers as the least scored-against goalie. While Broda's winning record was comparatively poor, the Vezina trophy race saw rookie Johnny Schirmer were the only others to enter the select group—each getting 24 tallies.

OTHER MARKS OF NOTE

Among other statistical marks of note were the 26 points compiled by captain Dit Clapper of Boston to lead defencemen in scoring; Boston's team-total of 168 goals; the 34 points that Johnny Quilty of Montreal Canadiens scored to lead first-year men; New York Americans amazing but better-forgotten record of having 186 goals scored against them; and, of course, Boston's 23-game unbeaten streak that enabled them to gain first place after a weak start.

A member of the Canadian press all-star team two years ago, Cowley gained the scoring crown in his seventh N.H.L. season. He broke in with the old St. Louis club in 1934-35 from Halifax Wolverines, switching to Boston the following campaign.

His best playoff performance was in 1939 when he led all scorers with 14 points to pace the Bruins to the Stanley Cup, three times making plays that broke up long overtime duels.

Two Cup Soccer Games Scheduled

Two cup-tie soccer games will be played over the coming week-end, Saanich Thistles and Esquimalt battling Saturday, and Victoria West and Navy seeking action Sunday.

The Saturday game will be a Province Cup game. It will take place at Athletic Park, starting at 2.45, with McKinnon as referee.

The Sunday game, also at Athletic Park, starting at 2.45, will be a Phoenix Cup match. Dave McMillan will referee.

Thistles, who beat Victoria United in a Province Cup game two weeks ago, will practice tonight at Athletic Park for their meeting with the powerful Esquimalt team.

The work-out will start at 8, and the following players have been called to attend: Saunders, Hunt, Gibbons, Underwood, Fieldhouse, M. Speller, Holness, A. Speller, Ed. Brown, L. Speller, R. Robbins, L. Fuller, F. Macdonald, R. Donaghy and T. Peers.

Sylvester U-Drive Team Gains Final

Scoring their second straight victory over Liberty Cafe, Sylvester U-Drive squad won its way into the final playoff against Hilly U-Drive for the championship of the Victoria Table Tennis Association.

Score last night was 20 to 16.

Scores follow:

Liberty Cafe—Singles: R. Dawson 6, T. Chattell 3, H. Jarvis 2, W. Robinson 4. Doubles: T. Chattell and W. Robinson 0, H. Jarvis and R. Dawson 1.

Sylvester U-Drive—Singles: W. Cotton 7, L. Greenwood 6, Miss B. Mackay 4, Mrs. L. Greenwood 0. Doubles: W. Cotton and L. Greenwood 2, Miss B. Mackay and Mrs. L. Greenwood 1.

Nanaimo Gets Final

NELSON, B.C. (CP)—Pat Aitken, secretary of the British Columbia Amateur Hockey Association, announced yesterday that the western Canada intermediate hockey final between Swift Current and Nanaimo will open at Nanaimo Saturday night.

He added the remaining games of the best-of-three series also will be played at Nanaimo the following week, but the exact dates have yet to be set.

The Swift Current team gained one semi-final bracket in the intermediate playoffs by beating out Fort William while Nanaimo Clippers gained the other by downing Canmore Briquettes, Alberta champions.

Western Cage Playoffs Set

VANCOUVER (CP)—Charlie McLachlan, vice-president of the Canadian Amateur Basketball Association, said here last night Winnipeg St. Andrews will play Regina Waz-Ramblers April 4 and 5 at Regina in a total-point series for the right to enter the semifinals of the western Canadian men's senior A basketball championships.

Winners of the Regina series will meet Raymond Union Jacks April 8 and 9 in a total-point semifinal series, the winners of which will play the British Columbia champions in a best-of-three series at either Vancouver or Victoria for the western Canada title and the Lieutenant-Governor E. W. Hamber Trophy.

Home fans made the Hawks slight favorites. The teams return to Montreal for a Saturday game and then, if necessary, they will play a third here Tuesday with the surviving team meeting the Rangers-Detroit winner for the right to enter the final.

Art Wiebe and Bill Thoms of Black Hawks will definitely not play. Further, Johnny Mariucci, hard-hitting young defenceman, and forward Bill Carse are not likely to see much action. Both are recovering from leg cuts.

During the season Canadiens defeated Hawks five times and lost three.

SOCCER VETERANS PLAY EXHIBITION

As an added attraction to the juvenile soccer league's field day at Athletic Park March 29, which will feature a return match between the Press team and Victoria United, old-time soccer players will don boots and shorts to battle during the half-time interval of the main game.

The two veterans' teams will be the Sons of England and Victoria West.

Pat Mulcahy, Victoria's soccer commissioner who played left wing for the old-time Victoria West club, will manage this team.

Dick "Pop" Shanks, manager of the S.O.E. team of long ago, will be in the driver's seat again. Former players of the S.O.E. team willing to turn out for the game are asked to communicate with Shanks at E 5926 or call at 937 Fort Street.

Mulcahy is lining up the West's team and plans on bringing Jimmy Sherritt, former forward of the team, from Vancouver for the game.

NO BOXING SHOW
The usual weekly boxing and wrestling show at the Victoria Boys' Athletic and Hobby Club, Cook Street, will not be held this week owing to work being done on the ring, and the building of bleacher seats.

Also available back in New York are four other Ramblers. They are Bill Juzda, defence, and a complete forward line made up of Stan Smith, centre; Lude Wareing, right wing, and Herb Foster, left wing.

The Wings are also at full strength with the exception of Wingman Eddie Wares, out through a shoulder injury.

Will Defend Titles

Doug Marsland and Don Kerr, P.N.W. Y.M.C.A. gymnasium champions and runner-up, respectively, for the past year, will journey to Everett on Friday to defend their laurels. They will be accompanied by Archie McKinnon, local "Y" coach.

The Victoria lads will compete on the high bar, horse, flying rings, parallel bars and mats.

INDIANS POWERFUL
REGINA (CP)—Swift Current Indians, western Canada intermediate hockey finalists and holder of last year's championship, are preparing for the long jaunt to Nanaimo, B.C., for the final series.

Indians in name and Indians in nature when it comes to getting goals, the Swift Current squad literally walked over all opposition in Saskatchewan this season and then eliminated Fort William Canadian Cars, Manitoba-Thunder Bay champions, to enter the final round.

Established an impressive record in their playoffs. They first eliminated Regina Roughriders in straight games, then took on and downed Saskatoon intermediate Quakers, also in straight games. Their last opposition, Fort William, won one game out of the four played.

Toronto-Boston Aces Dominate All-Stars

Finals Open Tonight On Three Fronts

BOSTON (CP)—Supporters of Toronto Maple Leafs hoped today for not worse than an even break in the first two games as Leafs and Boston Bruins made final preparations for the opening tonight of the Stanley Cup semi-final playoffs.

The teams, which finished one-two-Boston on top—in the regular National Hockey League season, play here tonight and Saturday, then go to Toronto for games Tuesday and Thursday. It's a best-of-seven series.

Leafs held their final workout yesterday and retired early to their university club quarters where manager Conny Smythe and the injured members of the team—Syl Apps, Bingo Kampman and Hank Guldup—were expected to join them today.

The small but staunch crowd of Leafs supporters believe the Toronto crew has too much spirit and fight to get worse than an even break here. By the time they get back to Toronto Apps, Kampman and Guldup should be ready for duty. With those players, the Leafs will be ready to fight Boston tooth and nail.

The Bruins are all in excellent shape. The Leafs' policy of carrying a large squad stands them well in entering the playoffs. Despite the loss of three players, they have no need to go exploring the minors for replacements and will ice a full team that has been with them all season.

CHICAGO-CANADIENS

CHICAGO (CP)—A capacity crowd of 16,000 was forecast today for the opening game tonight of the Stanley Cup playoff between the fifth-place Chicago Black Hawks and the sixth-place Montreal Canadiens.

Home fans made the Hawks slight favorites. The teams return to Montreal for a Saturday game and then, if necessary, they will play a third here Tuesday with the surviving team meeting the Rangers-Detroit winner for the right to enter the final.

Art Wiebe and Bill Thoms of Black Hawks will definitely not play. Further, Johnny Mariucci, hard-hitting young defenceman, and forward Bill Carse are not likely to see much action. Both are recovering from leg cuts.

During the season Canadiens defeated Hawks five times and lost three.

DETROIT-RANGERS

DETROIT (CP)—New York Rangers, just about the hottest team in the National Hockey League right now, and Detroit Red Wings, who blow hot and cold, came to town today for the opening game of their best-of-three Stanley Cup playoff series.

Rangers, last season's cup winners, are favorites to win the series in two straight. The main reason for that is the New Yorkers won eight of their last nine league games. They acted like the dazzling Rangers of last season.

Rangers arrived here with two goalkeepers—Dave Kerr, the regular custodian, and Claude Bourque, up as insurance from the Rangers' farm team, Philadelphia Ramblers, who didn't make the American League playoffs.

Also available back in New York are four other Ramblers. They are Bill Juzda, defence, and a complete forward line made up of Stan Smith, centre; Lude Wareing, right wing, and Herb Foster, left wing.

The Wings are also at full strength with the exception of Wingman Eddie Wares, out through a shoulder injury.

Hockey Players May Get Relief

NEW YORK (CP)—George P. Geran of New York, a former United States Olympic Hockey player, has sent out invitations to all professional hockey players and referees in Canada and the United States to join a relief organization to be known as the "Association of Professional Hockey Players of America."

The organization, set up under New York state registration, is outlined by Geran in his letter as "strictly for benevolent purposes, operated on a nonprofit basis and at no time will it take part in club-player contract disputes or otherwise interfere with the management of league affairs."

It is planned as a relief body, to render aid and assistance to players, in the same way that the Association of Professional Ball Players of America, organized in 1924, takes care of the sick and indigent baseball player.

In a letter to Frank Calder, president of the National Hockey League, Montreal, Geran said the organization hopes for league cooperation in staging an annual benefit game in each of these four professional leagues: National, American League, American Association and Pacific Coast.

Proceeds of these games, plus dues of the players and referees, would make up the organization's funds.

Calder replied that the matter would be laid before the board of governors.

Weiland and Irvin Picked As Coaches

TORONTO (CP)—Loaded with the power and the main defensive strength of Boston Bruins and Toronto Maple Leafs, the 11th annual Canadian Press all-star National Hockey League teams were announced today, a few hours before the opening of the Stanley Cup playoffs.

These "dream" teams, consensus selections by 30 sports writers in N.H.L. cities, have no less than nine of the 12 positions filled by Bruins and Leafs, testimony enough as to why they battle tonight in the first game of the cup semifinals. The first team is led by Boston's coach, little Cooney Weiland.

The schedule finished with Bruins in front and Leafs breathing fire right behind them. They came out of the balloting for all-star honors in the same order in the number of men placed. There are five Bruins, four Leafs, two Rangers and a lone Chicago Black Hawk with Dick Irvin of the Stanley Cup playoffs.

THREE NEWCOMERS

Three men never before selected for all-star honors are on this season's club, packed with the color that goes naturally with the perfectionists in any sport. Walter (Turk) Broda, Wally Stanowski, and Rangers' 10-year man, Ott Heller, have never made either team before.

If there are any surprises, it must be in the selection of Stanowski to share a berth on the first squad with the great Dit Clapper, acknowledged leader of all the big-league rearguards. Never before has a sophomore defenceman, as is Stanowski, crashed into the charmed society of Canadian Press all-stars.

But Stanowski, who will not celebrate his 22nd birthday until April 28, did it on the strength of a great season in which he picked up the torch on one of the Toronto club has carried since the days of King Clancy. For his color, his spectacular breathtaking rushing and his capable, if not superlative, blocking, the selectors placed the young Winnipeg Pole in the company of 34-year-old Clapper, the 29-year-old Earl Seibert and the 30-year-old Heller.

AMATEUR HOCKEY

Thunder Bay Junior League final—Port Arthur Juniors 6, Port Arthur West Ends 3. (Juniors win best-of-five series 3 to 1).

Manitoba, Thunder Bay senior playoff—Port Arthur 15, Winnipeg 5. (Port Arthur wins best-of-three series 2 to 0).

Work Started On Auto Court

An application for a building permit covering $26,000 worth of work on the proposed $42,000 bungalow court planned by R. S. Olsen on the old Savory-Mitchell property on the Gorge Road, featured several undertakings for which permits were sought from the city department yesterday afternoon and today.

Williams, Trevis & Williams Ltd. are contractors for the main project designed by Hubert Savage, architect. Application today covered only eight of the 13 duplexes and one office building listed in the plans. The remainder would be undertaken later, but within the time specified by the city. Plans call for the construction of Type A buildings.

Yesterday F. and E. M. Drysdale secured a permit for a $3,200 five-room home at 1281 Kings Road, Mr. and Mrs. F. T. Pengelly another for a $2,200 four-room home at 2574 Klondike Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Donald Mitchell another for a $2,950 five-room dwelling at 851 Richmond Road.

GINGER ROGERS AS KITTY FOYLE

How a spirited working girl sacrifices her own happiness for the sake of the man she loves, forms the theme of Ginger Rogers' new RKO Radio vehicle, "Kitty Foyle," now at the Capitol Theatre.

Bringing Christopher Morley's widely discussed novel to the screen in brilliant fashion, the picture vividly deals with the modern romance of a little secretary and her socialite employer.

The upshot of their acquaintance is a runaway marriage, but when Kitty discovers that her husband's family want to run their lives for them, she realizes it's hopeless and gets an annulment. But she's still in love with him. Meanwhile she meets a young doctor who falls in love with her, and after years of business success, but romantic loneliness, Kitty is about to give in to her former husband when he comes dramatically back into her life.

"Invisible Woman" Dominion Feature

By no means a one-man film but a film only one man could make is presented in Universal's latest feature, "The Invisible Woman," showing at the Dominion Theatre tomorrow.

Only John Fulton, the young technical expert who created "The Invisible Man" in 1933, could furnish the astounding photographic effects which make the new picture one of the most unusual comedies in screen history.

Starring Virginia Bruce, John Barrymore, John Howard, Charlie Ruggles and Oscar Homolka, the production presents as its central figure a beautiful dress model who is made invisible and uses the power of her invisibility to cut capers which are said to rank among the most laugh-provoking cinema antics of all time.

RIO — "Prairie Schooners," starring Bill Elliott.

YORK — Joan Blondell and Melvyn Douglas in "There's Always a Woman."

"LUCKY PARTNERS" ON OAK BAY BILL

With the premier teaming of Ronald Colman and Ginger Rogers, the sparkling romantic comedy, RKO Radio's "Lucky Partners," now at the Oak Bay Theatre, brings two of the brightest stars in the Hollywood constellation.

Colman, a name that immediately recalls scores of colorful characterizations, plays a once-famous but carefree artist living in comparative poverty under an assumed name.

Ginger Rogers depicts a young lady engaged to a lame-brained insurance salesman.

"SANTA FE TRAIL" NEW ATLAS FILM

"Santa Fe Trail," the Errol Flynn-Olivia de Havilland co-starring film is currently showing at the Atlas Theatre.

It tells a stirring story of the era just preceding the Civil War, when Jeb Stuart and General Custer, newly graduated from West Point began military careers. Interwoven with their story is that of John Brown, "God's Angry Man," as he has been called, who sought to rid the wrong of slavery by bloodshed and riot.

ROUSING WESTERN ON RIO SCREEN

The old west roars to life again as hot lead flies across the bullet-riddled plain. War flares on the western prairie with Wild Bill Hickok back in the saddle once more. Hair-raising battles and breath-taking thrills mount up in "Prairie Schooners," action saga of the early frontier.

Bill Elliott, two-fisted, two-gun action star brings the western hero to glowing life in the Columbia picture, which is now at the Rio Theatre. Evelyn Young plays his leading lady as the action favorite helps a party of Kansans withstand a savage Indian raid while making a crimson wagon trek into the crimson west.

Jackie Souders On York Stage

The York Theatre opens tomorrow for two days only, continuous showings daily, with another sensational dance band to follow the Duke Ellington appearance. In person, Jackie Souders and his National Broadcasting orchestra is appearing on the York stage, with Betty Taylor, Max Wellpillar and the Glee Club.

Jackie Souders, who has been broadcasting for the past six years, has earned for himself the title "Prince of Playboys."

On the same bill will be Don Ameche and Loretta Young in "Love Under Fire," and "Titans of the Deep."

PLAZA THEATRE

An innovation, unusual in the art of motion picture making, was introduced by W. C. Fields, the star, during the production of his latest comedy, Universal's "The Bank Dick," now at the Plaza Theatre.

Working in collaboration with his director, Eddie Cline, Fields drew sketches of the action of each scene before it went before the camera, and indicated his movements as the scene would be played. The plan proved very out of the many comedy so successful in getting the most quences the production contains.

Wronsky and Babin Play Here Tuesday

Wronsky and Babin will play here next Tuesday.

This brilliant two-piano team comes to Victoria in the midst of a record-breaking transcontinental tour. In the five years since their debut on this continent they have become firmly established as one of the most popular instrumental attractions in the music world.

They return with several novelties which are expected to match the musical interest aroused by their arrangement of dances from Moussorgsky's "Prince Igor," so widely acclaimed and recorded, their romantic transcriptions of Schumann and their impressive performances of Bach and Mozart.

WANGER THRILLER COMES TO CADET

Walter Wanger's latest film production, "Foreign Correspondent," is showing at the Cadet Theatre today. Brilliantly directed by Alfred Hitchcock, master of screen mystery and suspense, "Foreign Correspondent" must be put down by this reviewer as the thrill spectacle of the year, a motion picture which unravels gripping drama, breath-taking excitement, red-blooded romance and high-pitched intrigue.

It is played brilliantly by a top-notch cast headed by Joel McCrea, Laraine Day, George Sanders, Robert Benchley, Albert Basserman and Herbert Marshall.

Wandering Somalis Sing Song to Camel

Perhaps you remember the time when Blackshirts in Italy set up a cry, "We want Jibuti!" They also wanted Tunisia and the island of Corsica, if we may believe what they shouted while Mr. Mussolini was making a speech.

Somalis loading a camel.

Jibuti is the only good seaport of the French part of Somaliland. It is close to the strait between Africa and the southern end of Arabia. Sometimes the spelling is given as "Djibouti," but the other spelling is correct and more simple to handle.

Jibuti has a population of about 11,000. It seemed important to the Italians because goods from Ethiopia passed through it on the way to the sea. It is at one end of a railway leading from the capital of Ethiopia to the coast.

French Somaliland is less than 1,200 sq. miles in area and has gone under the name of Italian Somaliland. It would have almost no importance except for the capital, Jibuti.

France obtained full control of this little colony 58 years ago. Since then, schools have been started in Jibuti and a few other places. Some of the native Somali children go to these schools.

In French Somaliland, as in other parts of east-central Africa, the camel plays a part in trade. Camels loaded with goods travel to places which are not reached by any railway.

The Somalis also raise camels in order to obtain milk from them. So, to a certain extent camels do the same work for those people as cows do for us.

The wandering Somalis take camels with them when they go from place to place, and they seem to be fond of the animals. This is an interesting point, since camels are not friendly, as a rule.

In breaking camp, a band of Somalis may sing a song to the camel. It starts with words meaning, "Another day of work, oh camel."

Then the camel is supposed to reply. Since it can't talk, one of the men sings for it, saying, "Come on and load me up quickly."

Like travelers in desert land in northern Africa, the Somalis must think a great deal about water. During much of the year, the climate is dry, and a great deal of Somaliland is a waste which is not fit for crops.

HOROSCOPE

Friday, March 21

As the sun enters Aries for the spring quarter there is a sign favorable to the discussion of world peace. Benefic aspects dominate today.

Women come under a fortunate planetary rule today. It should enable them to view personal as well as world trouble with real philosophy, for mental vision needs to be clear and logic keen. The configuration promises much in domestic happiness. This is a promising date for lovers. Romance will flourish and there will be many marriages among widows, especially those who live on the Pacific coast.

Unity of purpose will mark citizens of every class. While there will be widespread effort by subversive agencies, it will accomplish relatively little.

In this spring quarter, planets in the sign of Taurus appear to threaten earthquakes in the east within the next two months, and Japan will suffer severely. Venus rising in Delhi is fortunate for Great Britain's interests in India. Great political changes are prognosticated in both India and Japan. Economic difficulties in Japan will weaken the military supporters. Their people will become restive under the long, severe period of sacrifice for war.

Persons whose birthdate it is have the augury of a year of exciting experiences. Gains in financial holdings are indicated.

THIS CURIOUS WORLD

By William Ferguson

ANSWER: January 1, 1931.

Dorothy Dix's Letter Box

DEAR DOROTHY DIX—I am very friendly with a girl who has been married before and has two children but is now divorced because of a very unhappy marriage venture. I like her very much, but I don't love her yet. However, I feel that some day I may fall in love with her. My mother doesn't like the idea of my marrying her because of the children. Should I let this interfere? Should I let what people say about having a ready-made family get me down? If we get married the children are going to stay with their grandmother, who is very anxious to have them, but there still remains the fact that the woman has two children. Please advise me as to what I should do.

Answer—Don't befool yourself into thinking that if you marry a woman with children that you can just eliminate them from the picture. You can't. They will be the most conspicuous figures in it, and you will just be the "little man who wasn't there" in the background, who pays for having their adenoids out and their teeth straightened and their clothes and schools and skates, etc.

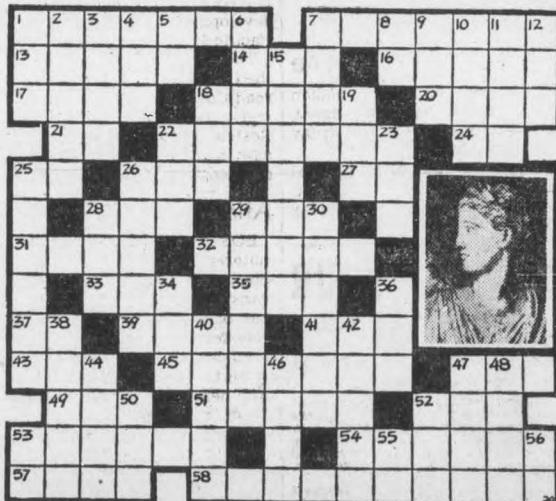

Don't think that the problem is going to be solved by Grandma keeping the children. She may until you and her daughter are safely married and then she will get sick or decide the children are too much for a person of her age, or die or something and she will bundle them up and send them back to their mother, where they belong, for they are her responsibility.

Nor could you expect any woman who was a real woman to give up her children. She loves them. She wants them with her. She will be miserable without them. And she will soon lose all affection for you if you come between her and them.

Don't marry a woman with children unless you are willing to accept the full responsibility for them, and unless you are big enough not to be jealous of your wife's love for her little ones. No man in the world is so mean and contemptible as the one who is a cruel or even an unloving and unsympathetic stepfather.

DOROTHY DIX.

U.S. War Outlays To Equal Britain's

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States armament spending may soon equal or exceed Britain's present monthly war outlay of $1,500,000,000.

Congressional tabulations show the government is pouring nearly $4,000,000,000 into airplane plants, shipyards, tank factories and other industrial facilities.

Interested legislators said they were informed that by June the vast armaments production machine—already enlarged by the expenditure of more than $2,000,000,000 for plant expansion since the defence program started—would be turning out implements of war for the army and navy at a rate requiring a monthly treasury outlay of $1,200,000,000.

While this was regarded as the temporary peak for strictly American needs, final approval of the British aid appropriation will call for expenditure of an additional $7,000,000,000 during the next 18 months to produce equipment for other nations.

This aid program would boost the United States' monthly bill for arms to $1,500,000,000, about $100,000,000 more than Britain is spending now to prosecute the war.

Grid Games at Macdonald Park

The scene of week-end junior Canadian football games has been switched again. This Sunday the fans will be wending their way to Macdonald Park, James Bay, to see the gridlers in action.

The junior league game, which will start at 3, will bring together the defending champs and league leaders, V.H.S. Alumni and the up-and-coming National Rollers' team.

Rollers swamped a weakened Alumni squad in an exhibition two weeks ago. The V.H.S. team will be out to gain revenge.

They'll have a job on their hands though. Nationals are playing much improved ball, and last Sunday were just nosed out 18 to 16 by Oak Bay Blue Devils.

An interscholastic league game between Vichigh and Oak Bay will precede the main game. It will start at 1.45.

Another interscholastic league game will be played Saturday afternoon at Central Park. St. Louis College battling Saanich. Kick-off is set for 2.

Name Ivan Temple Grid League Head

The Junior Canadian Football League last night elected Ivan Temple, well known in local athletic circles, president for the rest of the season replacing George Deacon, coach of the senior champion team, Revellers, who was forced to retire from the office due to pressure of business.

Temple has long been connected with tennis and badminton of the city and was a member of the executive and player on the Durand Raiders ice hockey team which recently won the island intermediate championship.

Since the start of Canadian football in the city, Temple has taken a keen interest in the game.

The league agreed to having an all-star team play the Revellers in an exhibition after the close of the season and a selection committee for the all-stars was named. The committee follows: Deacon and Temple; Brother Paul Whalen, assistant coach to Deacon last season and coach of the St. Louis College interscholastic grid squad; Jim Smith, Bob Fulton and Sid Anderson, coaches of the junior teams; Benny McMillen, a member of the Revellers' executive; Dave Jenkins, captain of the Revellers; Bill Fletcher and Lloyd Baker, press representatives.

Players of junior age, who played for the Revellers, will be allowed to play with the all-star team against the big-timers.

Baseball Gossip

LOS ANGELES—Despite interruptions of training by rain, the Pittsburgh Pirate pitchers are beginning to round into shape and several rookies are looking promising. Aldon (Lefty) Wilkie, Johnny Gee and Dick Conger have been outstanding.

ORLANDO, Fla. — George Archie, the most valuable player in the Pacific Coast League, came to camp expecting to make the Washington Senators squad, but made only three hits in six games. Manager Bucky Harris has decided to split the first basing job between Jim Vernon and Jack Sanford.

ANAHEIM, Calif. — Connie Mack is trying to find a stopper for the hole around second base in time for today's game with Chicago. Fred Chapman and Benny McCoy both let the winning runs go through yesterday for the A's loss to Pittsburgh.

LOS ANGELES—Strong man Lou Novikoff still is the weak sister in the Cubs' batting order. The Cubs won their first exhibition yesterday, beating the White Sox, but Novikoff struck out twice, grounded out twice. At bat 23 times in training, he has three hits for a .131 average.

ST. PETERSBURG, Fla. — Cleveland Indians, here for a game with the St. Louis Cardinals today, are beginning to lose their doubts about southpaw Al Smith, a hurling-staff question mark. Smith has looked good most of the spring, and in four innings yesterday against Louisville didn't allow a man to reach first.

NEW HAVEN, Conn. — Al Gainer, 176, New Haven, outpointed Henry Moroz, 187, New York (10).

Mainland Boxla Coaches Retire

VANCOUVER (CP) — It appears that coaches and managers of the Inter-city Box Lacrosse world have decided to take leave from the coming boxla wars this season.

At the annual meeting of the Burrard Blue Bombers club last night Ed. Irvine, financial supporter of the Bombers, was elected coach and manager succeeding Les. Dickinson, who piloted the Bombers to the Inter-city title and the Mann Cup finals in Toronto last season only to be beaten by St. Catharines Athletics.

This makes the second boxla baron to be shuffled to the sidelines within a week.

Grumpy Spring, who rode herd on the New Westminster Salmonbellies for the past 20 years, recently turned over the coaching reins to Harry Nevard, who coached his junior Knights of Pythias to the Dominion finals held here last year.
